MEXICAN BAND, LOSING RANSOM, KILLS YANKEE

Mexico City, Sept. 16.—The bandits who kidnaped Jacob Rosenthal, wealthy American retired merchant of Woodmere, Long Island, N. Y., Sunday between here and Cuernavaca, carried out their threat to murder him and stabbed him to death at 10 o'clock last night.

The Mexican police, not believing that the kidnapers would fulfill their threat, had attempted to follow them. Joseph Ruff, son-in-law of Mr. Rosenthal, who was 62 years old, received a letter from the murdered man yesterday morning which said:

"I am held in a forest two miles from where we breakfasted Sunday. I'm sick. Have slept in rain. Robbers want 20,000 pesos (about $10,000). Hurry up."

Bandits Give Ransom Order.

Accompanying Mr. Rosenthal's letter was another, from the kidnapers, giving directions on how to reach them with the ransom and ordering that only two men should carry the money from Cuernavaca to the meeting place, to which they were to proceed on horse.

Mr. Ruff hurried with the letter to Arthur Schoenfeld, acting head of the American embassy. The latter sent the letter to Gen. Robert Cruise, chief of police. Gen. Cruise forwarded the letter to Gen. Jesus Lopez, who was at Cuernavaca with a heavy detachment of troops. Gen. Lopez sent two soldiers, disguised as civilians, to meet the robbers. They carried a sack in which they carried iron in the place of money. Their scheme was carried out over the protest of Mr. Ruff, who said it would be safer for them to pay the ransom.

The two disguised soldiers were followed by Gen. Lopez and his troops.

Troops Kill Two Bandits.

When the two men had approached the bandits last night, the troops following opened fire, killing two of the outlaws. The remainder of the band, thwarted in their plan to obtain ransom, stabbed and beat their captive to death, then fled, fighting a running battle with the troops.

After halting to recover the bodies the troops pressed on after the bandits in the wild country, which is about forty miles from here. Every effort is being made to capture the gang.

Gen. Lopez telegraphed Gen. Cruise word of the murder and the latter notified the American embassy.

The embassy today received a letter from Jack Zahler, of this city, from whom automobile Mr. Rosenthal was kidnaped, saying he would arrive here with the body tonight. Mr. Ruff collapsed today when he heard of his father-in-law's death.

Kellogg Demands Redress.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Secretary Kellogg tonight instructed Charge d'Affaires Schoenfeld at Mexico City to make representations to the Calles government to leave no stone unturned in apprehending and punishing the slayers of Jacob Rosenthal of New York.

The secretary's action came shortly after the receipt of news from Mexico telling of the death of the American at the hands of the brigands.

While the text of the instructions was not made public, the brief announcement clearly shows that the Washington government feels that such an offense against its nationals warrants prompt action by the Mexican authorities.

Pending further developments state department officials refused to forecast what additional steps might be necessary, but it was made clear that officials here believe the Calles government has shown good faith in its attempt to capture the brigands.

Coldie Kicks Kellogg.

Paul Smith, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—President Coolidge, notified by the state department late this afternoon of the murder of Jacob Rosenthal of Woodmere, L. I., by Mexican bandits, will insist that the state department's demands for the arrest and punishment of the bandits be complied with without delay by the Mexican authorities.

The message from the state department reads:

"The state department has received

Dr. Hutchins, Noted Woman, Wanders Away

Police all over the city last night were seeking Dr. Hannah Georgia Hutchins, 82 years old, famous woman physician, who for fifteen years was an honorary president of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.

She was believed to be a victim of amnesia, having wandered away from her residence at 1901 West Monroe street early in the day.

Retired Seven Years Ago.

Dr. Hutchins for fifty years was a resident of Chicago. She was a practicing physician for 28 years and during those years was always active in civic affairs. In temperance work and in politics, she had been retired from her practice for seven years, and according to her daughter, Helen L. Hutchins, with whom she lived on Monroe street, had of late been a victim of mental vagaries.

Messages telling of Dr. Hutchins' disappearance and of her relatives' anxiety for her safety were broadcast last night from several local radio stations. At 1 o'clock this morning, however, no word of her had been received.

Memory Weak Recently.

"My mother's memory has been vague, yet her mind otherwise is alert," Miss Hutchins said. "She has been pretty well physically and often took walks around the block. When any one on these walks asked her who she was she gave them her maiden name Stevens. She had an idea for some time that she wanted to go back to Princeton, Ill., where she was born. Her advanced age makes me fear, now after she has been gone for hours, that some misfortune has befallen her."

Dr. Hutchins is described as a woman only 5 feet tall and weighing 110 pounds. When she left home she was clad in black and white gingham dress, a black hat and black scarf.

Practiced as Homopath.

She was graduated from the old Hahnemann College of Medicine. For thirty years she was a director of the Frances Willard hospital, and during that time was vice president, an honorary position she still holds.

ENGINE PLUNGES OVER BANK IN N.W. WRECK; ONE DEAD

John W. Kothlow, 32 years old, a locomotive fireman, was killed and two other men were injured last night when a Northwestern freight train, moving at high speed, crashed into a heavy wrecking crane on the tracks midway between Jefferson Park and Portage Park.

The engine, with Kothlow and Engineer Nicholas Melzer in the cab, overturned and fell down the embankment. The fireman, pinned under the wreck, was scalded to death. His body was extricated by firemen of Truck company No. 21 and Squad No. 6, assisted by a detective bureau, under command of Sgt. Peter Hartley, who burned away portions of the steel with acetylene torches.

Melzer, who lived at 821 North Leavitt street, and John Anderson, 2335 West Grand avenue, operator of the crane, were injured. Anderson was taken to the Swedish Covenant hospital, where it was said he might lose an arm.

550,000 a Year Rental.

The leasehold estate, 81x161 feet, at Congress and Wabash, was purchased from the Ohio Building Safety Vault company, of which Evan Evans, vice president of the Higginson-Harris company, is head. The rent will be $550,000 annually for 180 years.

With the exception of 180 feet on Wabash and the small Harrison-Michigan corner, Mr. Kaufman now has the entire block bounded by Michigan, Congress, Wabash, and Harrison.

"I don't intend to build the largest hotel in the world," said Mr. Kaufman, "but I hope to have the finest and most luxurious. Holabird & Roche will be the architects."

Will Be Built in Units.

"I live part of the time in New York, so I know the artistic value of setbacks in architecture. The new Congress will differ architecturally from any Chicago hotel. It'll be thirty-two stories and will be built in units."

"The first will be just west of the present hotel, on Congress, and will be devoted entirely to bachelor quarters, with every club luxury. The southwest corner of Michigan and Congress will be for transients, and the third unit, on the boulevard to the south, will contain luxurious suites for permanent guests."

The small legitimate theater will be called "The Congress." It will have 1,600 seats. The movie theater will be christened probably by the leasee.

New Congress Hotel to House Two Theaters

BY AL CHASE.

Two new theaters, one a tiny luxurious playhouse and the other a good sized moving picture house, are promised Chicago by H. L. Kaufman, president of the Higginson-Harris company, as a result of his acquiring after a year's negotiations the property at the southeast corner of Congress street and Wabash avenue. They are to be incorporated in the huge new Congress hotel, which will be several hundred rooms larger than originally planned as a result of yesterday's deal. Both theaters will have entrances on Congress street, opposite the Auditorium drug store.

Jumps 4,000 Feet Out of Mail Plane

After circling for hours last night over the suburbs and the countryside west of Chicago, unable to locate the government flying field at Maywood because of a dense fog, Air Mail Pilot Carl A. Lindberg saved his life by leaping from his plane at Ottawa, Ill., and floating from a height of 4,000 feet in a parachute.

The plane, left without guidance, crashed to the ground and was wrecked. Three sacks of mail were extricated from the debris and forwarded to Chicago by train.

Lindberg left St. Louis on schedule and made his usual stops at Springfield and Peoria. As he neared Maywood, however, he ran into the dense bank of fog that already had forced three air mail planes to the ground. As he neared his destination the clouds became thicker.

Heard Over Oak Park.

Once at about 7:30 p. m. the whir of his motor was heard over the government field. There huge searchlights were playing on the skies, but he was apparently unable to discern them and continued on his way.

Residents of Oak Park "saw" him for more than an hour as he swung in giant circles over the suburb, while the officials at the field continued to hope he would make his landing.

It was believed, however, that he had gone high to avoid the possibility of striking high buildings if his course should lead to the loop.

Anxiety became intense when it was reported that the hum of the engine was no longer heard in the vicinity of the field near Oak Park. The last report was from a motorcycle policeman, who said that he had heard the machine beating its way westward shortly before 8:30 p. m.

Got Report Pilot Is Safe.

It was more than three hours later when the report came in from Ottawa to the effect that the pilot was safe. He had landed some time earlier. Lindberg said that he had not been injured in any way by his long drop, but decided to remain in Ottawa until this morning, in an effort to salvage the plane.

Lindberg's gasoline began to run low eleven miles north of Ottawa. When he realized that the regular supply was gone and he had to draw on the reserve tank he decided to trust himself to the parachute.

"If I hadn't jumped before twenty minutes were up, it would have been too late," he said.

SAVAGE DEMANDS JARECKI QUIT TO GET HONEST VOTE

Says County Judge Has Confessed Unfitness.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

Joseph P. Savage, Republican nominee for County Judge, yesterday called on his Democratic opponent, County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki, to resign immediately so an honest election can be held on Nov. 2.

Jarecki not only has confessed his own unfitness to be County Judge again, Savage said, but has also qualified himself for even having jurisdiction over the coming election, in which he seeks a second term.

Jarecki has branded himself with his own statements that there has not been an honest election in Cook county since he had charge of elections, Savage declared.

Not Jarecki Responsible.

The Republican nominee's demand for the resignation and the appointment of a new County Judge to meet the November election was made at a meeting of the Republican county committee yesterday, when a majority convention for the adoption of a platform taking a flat-footed stand on all issues was planned.

"The head of an institution is responsible for the management of it," said Savage. "The present County Judge, as head of the election machinery of Cook county, is responsible for its operation. He boastfully declares that he has not been an honest election in Cook county since he has been in charge of them."

He boasts that two years ago his name and clerks stole more than 10,000 votes for the traction ordinance. He again boasts that the April primary was the most corrupt ever held in Cook county. He started to recount his own vote, and after it appeared that more than twice as many ballots had been stolen for him than for any other candidate he arbitrarily suspended the recount.

"His own tallies under his very eye in his courtroom during the recent personally stole votes for candidates they favored, necessitating a recount of the recount."

"With such a record of incompetency and inefficiency, Judge Jarecki could resign immediately so that an honest, capable, and efficient judge may be appointed so the November election may be conducted honestly."

Not Frank Deemed Certain.

The Republican county convention will be held not later than Sept. 27, the committee decided. The date will be set by the executive committee in a day or two. The platform is certain to contain a plank for the modification or repeal of the Volstead dry law. Details were only touched yesterday.

"I don't believe in pussyfooting on any issue," said County Reviewer Charles V. Barrett in a speech suggesting the holding of a fall convention.

"We achieved a great victory in the primaries because we stood squarely on a great issue. I believe we should hold a great convention, adopt a platform of principles and declare what we stand for."

Republican prosperity will be emphasized in the platform as it was in yesterday's speeches by Mr. Barrett, State Attorney Crowe and Attorney General Oscar W. Carlstrom. The attorney general said he is ready to take the stump "seven days a week for Joe Savage and the whole Republican ticket."

Mr. Barrett said he has been talking terms of an election truce with the Deen camp, opponents of the Crowe-Barrett forces in the primary, and that indications of peace during the election campaign are promising.

"After all," he said, "we are Republicans and our adversaries are Republicans and I believe they will remain Republican."

CREW MISSING AFTER ITALIAN STEAMER SINKS

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The Italian steamer Elenia sank today off the British coast, but what has become of the crew remains a mystery. The first report to Lloyd's that all hands were lost appears to have been premature, for the steamer Homer, which hurried to the rescue of the sinking steamer, reports the possibility that the crew were picked up; as numerous fishing craft were in the vicinity. However, no word has been heard of them yet. The Belgian steamer India report finding an empty lifeboat. The disaster was due to a collision between the Elenia and the British steamer Indus, which, although damaged, was able to continue.

U.S. SHIP BATTLES CANNON ATTACK BY CHINESE ARMY

Machine Guns Reply to Cantonese Fire.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—An exchange of fire on Sept. 14 between the American mine sweeper Pigeon and a hidden battery manned by Chinese forces near Chingling Ki has been reported to the navy and state departments. It was announced today. It also was announced that a French gunboat had returned the fire of Chinese forces.

According to the dispatch from Admiral Williams of the Asiatic fleet, the Pigeon was heavily fired on by machine guns and field pieces from two emplacements.

"There were no hits or casualties," the report stated. "Due to the fact that the emplacements were so located that heavy gunfire would seriously endanger Standard Oil company and foreign houses, the fire was returned from machine guns only."

French Gunboat Returns Fire.

Admiral Williams stated that the French gunboat Balmi was fired upon while passing the same spot and replied with its main battery. He also reported that the American gunboat Monocacy is holding the Standard Oil company steamers Melhala and Melchuna. Eighteen men, with three machine guns, have been drafted from the Pigeon, he said, and placed temporarily on the Monocacy.

It is assumed the firing came from Cantonese troops, whose commander previously agreed to stop firing on foreign shipping.

Chinese Protest to British.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PEKING, Sept. 16.—The American gunboat Pigeon answered a heavy Cantonese shore battery fire near Hangchow with a vigorous machine gun fire, according to reports reaching here.

Four commercial vessels, with an American warship escort, reached Chungking today to rescue foreigners. The foreign office again has protested to the British legation against using force against the Reds, fearing that the foreigners in Chungking will be slaughtered by the enraged Chinese.

The Cantonese are battling Gen. Sun Chuan-fang's troops at Wusueh, 100 miles down the Yangtze from Mankow and 20 miles above Kiukiang, with Gen. Sun retreating. The siege of Wuchow continues. One foreigner was permitted to leave to obtain food for his comrades, most of whom are Americans.

HOME TO MOTHER

Leroy McLeish, 6340 Vernon avenue, last night was in Gary, Ind., seeking to kill his neighbor Peter Madsen, 52 year old carpenter, who on Sept. 2 ran away with McLeish's 12 year old daughter, Evelyn.

The father went with two friends to the Indiana town after the child suddenly returned from there last night and swore he would kill the carpenter, who had apparently deserted the little girl there.

While her father hunted for vengeance and police hunted with kidnapping warrants, Dr. Jesse Marsh, family physician, examined the girl and declared she had not been attacked. The child herself told Lieut. Michael Lachart of the Woodmen police that Madsen only tried to kiss her.

Evelyn said she met Madsen as she came from a dentist's office Sept. 2. He told her he could show her a stick of gold brick—"crops of gold"—and that he would show her a wonderful time. They were in St. Joe, Mich., South Bend, Ind., and Gary together, she said, and added in a childish way: "He did show me a wonderful time."

ALL DEMOCRATS IN CONNECTICUT RUNNING UPON WET PLATFORM

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The prohibition amendment was demanded today by the Democratic state convention, which nominated candidates for United States senator, governor and other state offices and adopted a platform for the state campaign.

The anti-prohibition plank reads: "The eighteenth amendment has no place in the framework of our government. It is an indefensible curtailment of personal liberty. We believe that it should be repealed and pledge ourselves for office to work for that end. In taking this unequivocal stand we do not countenance non-enforcement. While prohibition is the law of the land, it is the duty of our government to enforce it. We oppose the return of the saloon."

New York, Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Dependent because he was without funds to go to the bedside of his dying mother in Chicago and because he could not afford even a small present for his young daughter, whose birthday was today, Earl Cavanaugh, an actor, strangled himself with his belt at the Hotel Alpine. At the time Cavanaugh was dying his wife, Rose, his daughter, Ruth, 4, and Norman W. Taylor, also an actor, were celebrating Ruth's birthday at a supper party in a neighborhood restaurant. Cavanaugh had been unemployed for some time.

"Paging Mr. Someone"

Mr. Someone may be a golf player, mechanic, sportsman, policeman, a postman, salesman, floor walker, actor, doctor or public speaker—he may be merely an executive who sits at a desk most of the time.

Wherever he is and whatever he does, he has feet and wears shoes, and the chances are thirty to one that the shoes do not properly fit the feet—that they are tugging his energy, pecking at his nerves, lessening his efficiency. They are making him tired, unresponsive. He is getting fatigued without honestly earning it. He is years older than his age.

He needs SPECIAL RELAX SHOES more than he needs a vacation, or an increase in income. He really does!

This is true because Relax Shoes are the only shoes that can by any possibility fit human feet and give them the strengthening support they must have if they are to properly perform their functions. Old shoe theories have been thrown into reverse by the application of anatomical knowledge and common sense.

SPECIAL RELAX SHOES are fitted by men who know foot mechanics and its importance—and are sold at reasonable prices.

Come in and be convinced and we will be glad to help you with your foot ailments. We have the largest exclusive Orthopedic Department in the Country.

"I chanced upon an article in Harper's magazine, written by two young women, and my own manuscript was lame compared to theirs."

Last summer Cross worked in the Beacon Textile mills at New Bedford, Conn., for $16 a week, and spent every week-end at Cambridge, working under an industrial survey group of Episcopal students. At the end of the summer, without funds, he hitchhiked and walked his way home to Potomac, to visit his family.

Then the first article was published and Wilfred O. Cross' name was known in every sorority house, in every faculty meeting, on every college campus in this vicinity.

Criticized School's Budget.
Cross, by the way, stirred up a bit of a local disturbance down at Urbana last year when as a student, he wrote a class paper criticizing the university for putting so much money into new buildings and equipment and slighting the budget of professors' salaries, so that, he alleged, some of the more renowned of the faculty were leaving for other universities.

Cross' father, the Rev. William Cross, Methodist minister, in attendance at the Illinois Methodist conference at Mattoon yesterday, heard that Rev. J. C. Baker, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Student church at Urbana, get up in the meeting and characterize young Cross' accusations as false, so far as the University of Illinois was concerned.

Others Refute the Charges.
Deans of other co-educational institutions echoed the Urbana minister, speaking for their own campuses.

Dean Louis F. Nardin of the University of Wisconsin said: "The young man has a weak sense of fact. If he had read history he would know that morals have been a problem in human nature since the time of Adam and Eve, and that any condition of morals now in existence was in existence years and years ago."

The editor of the Witness, however, received many letters praising Cross' articles. Among these was a letter from the St. Rev. Samuel B. Booth, bishop coadjutor of Vermont, who knew Cross when he was in Cambridge.

"Personally," writes Bishop Booth, "I am beyond the point where I think it is the part of wisdom to be expressing good natured approval of the young people of the time. I don't believe they respect such opinions."

"I must express my appreciation of the clever way that you are working around to bring light on this subject, and I believe you will accomplish something."

Continuation in Indiana, Illinois, middle western states. Yesterday and yesterday of the river has been a daily phenomenon. Many localities since the Mississippi river has brought the Mississippi river into flood stage at Quincy, took on a new character on an excursion over the acres of lowlands near Quincy, Ill., with inundation by the river.

Crops in a ten thousand acre tract of Burlington, Ia., known as the Bay district, were perished yesterday. The water of the river inundated the district, which yesterday defied efforts to prevent inroads and farmers to move their livestock to higher ground. The water was up to the level of the levee, and the water was up to the level of the levee, and the water was up to the level of the levee.

The highest since 1844, with a connection. Basements of houses are flooded and men have started with sandbags to keep them backing up into the street. At Quincy, Ill., where the stage of the Mississippi river is ten feet, the gauge last night stood 11.6 feet.

[By the Associated Press.]
Inundation in Indiana, Illinois, and other middle western states Wednesday night and yesterday of the rainfall which has been a daily phenomenon in many localities since Sept. 1, brought the Mississippi river almost to flood stage at Quincy, took one of its tributaries on an excursion over hundreds of acres of lowlands near Burlington, Ia., and threatened Beardstown, Ill., with inundation by the Illinois river.

Crops in a ten thousand acre area west of Burlington, Ia., known as the "Big Bay" district, were periled by the sweeping waters of Skunk creek, which yesterday defied efforts of state militia and farmers to keep the waters within levees. The workers gave up their task of barricading the stream after a gap in the dike widened from four to twenty-five feet yesterday night. All-night efforts to stack sandbags in the breach. Stock has been moved to higher ground and lowland residents have moved many household goods to the hilltops.

Illinois on Rampage.
The waters of the Illinois river advanced toward the top of the levee at Beardstown, Ill., last night and threatened the town while a hundred men worked to reinforce the barrier with sandbags. The river had risen six inches in a day, and its present height is approximately twenty-two feet in its highest since 1944, with a single exception. Basements of Beardstown are flooded and manholes have been blocked up into the streets.

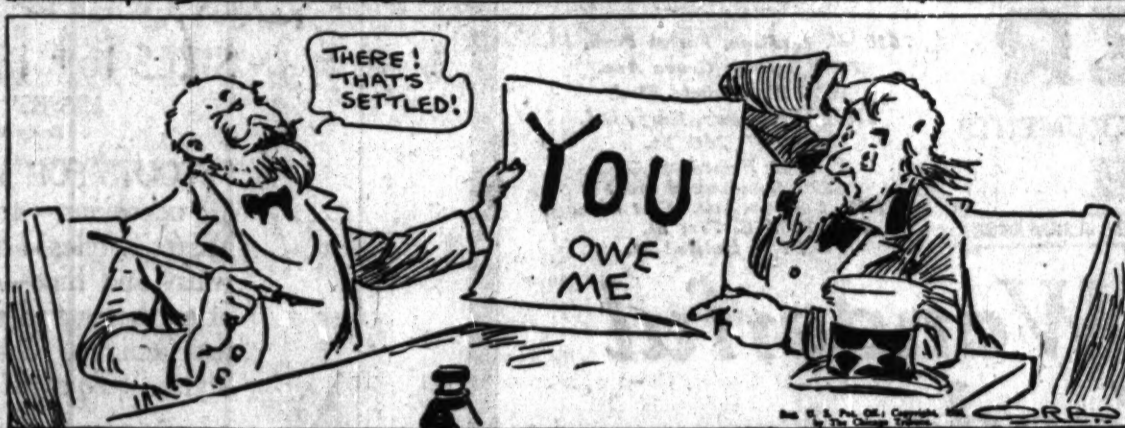

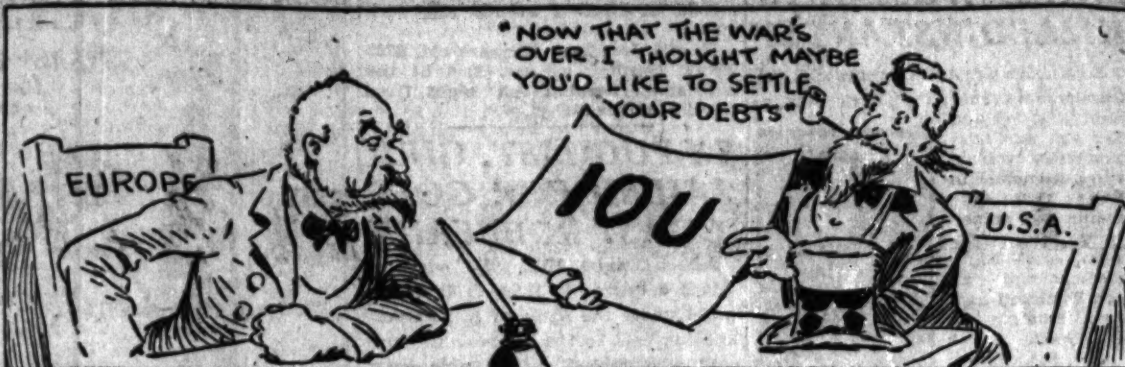

In Colton, Ill., where the flood stage of the Mississippi river is four feet, the gauge last night registered 11.4 feet.

In Indiana and inland Iowa, which have been intermittent sufferers by flood in the last fortnight, waters were receding after general showers Wednesday night in the former state and scattered rainfall in southern Iowa.

Red Cross on the Scene.
Volunteer workers of the Red Cross and other organizations are active in the east area of Eastern Illinois, Kansas and western Missouri. It was reported that the situation in the Neosho valley region was serious and required special relief workers to bring order and sanitation out of the havoc created. Miss Kathryn Monroe of National Red Cross headquarters and three able disaster workers from national headquarters are on the scene, and with the local chapter workers are reported to have the situation well in hand. Chicago Red Cross, it is announced, stands ready to act at a moment's call where the smaller chapters need assistance.

GERMANS PLAY UP
OPEN WARFARE IN ARMY MANEUVERS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
BERLIN, Sept. 16.—The German army maneuvers are being carried out on a big scale, the first time since the Versailles treaty, in various parts of Germany.

Featuring today's battle between the "Red" and "Blue" armies was the use of fog gas. Prevented by the peace treaty from employing military planes, the Germans used commercial planes. Anti-aircraft guns threw shells into the air which completely enveloped the planes, making it impossible for them to know where to turn. Later an open attack showed the same result as the first battle of the Marne. The "Red" and "Blue" armies became hopelessly mixed, whereupon fog gas was employed, enveloping the hill and permitting the armies to untangle themselves.

The lack of tanks was keenly felt. Wooden and paper tanks were employed. The cavalry played a big part, the same as in ancient wars.

CONNORS, OUSTED BY CAPT. MURPHY, GETS NO REVENGE

Politician's Plea Fails to Impress Dever.

Capt. Daniel Murphy, who threw William Connors, city license bureau chief and Democratic ward boss, out of the Chicago avenue police station, was on duty as usual last night despite efforts of the politician to get his job. Although Connors went directly to Mayor Dever with a demand that the captain be fired, there was no indication that any such thing is going to happen. The mayor merely said he would look into the matter, but refused to ensure the officer.

Chief Collins also indicated that it was Murphy's business if he wanted to quit anybody from his office—politician or no politician. In his action looking to the chief, the chief said, Murphy, so far as he could see, had simply obeyed orders.

Held Starts the Trouble.
The altercation which started the old ward leader on the warpath occurred early yesterday morning after the captain had seized an alleged gambler in a raid at 725 North Clark street. Connors, with James Rohan, another politician, appeared at the station and protested.

The politician then proceeded to tell Capt. Murphy that he was disobeying orders by holding patrons of a gambling house, and added words to the effect that he was a bigger man than the police captain in his district and that he would interfere whenever he pleased.

Whereupon the captain ordered him out of the office. Connors, a 300-pounder, told Murphy to go ahead if he dared, and a minute later the big politician was flat on the sidewalk, having slid down the seven outside steps with Capt. Murphy as the protesting agency.

Makes Protest to Mayor.
Connors lost no time in attempting his revenge. He appeared at the mayor's office before noon and lodged a formal complaint against Capt. Murphy for his "unseemly treatment."

Mr. Dever promised to investigate, but said, it was said, was simply a polite way of disposing of an unpleasant situation.

Previously Connors and Al. Dorsey, Dorsey had furnished bonds for the release and later they were released by Judge Eugene in the Chicago avenue court. He held that the evidence was insufficient.

"In these gambling joint cases, it is almost impossible to convict the gamblers," commented Chief Collins.

"You know, of course, that they are breaking the law, but proving that they actually exchanged money in the game is another thing."

PRIMARIES GIVE DEMOCRATS NEW HOPE FOR POWER

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Results of state primaries have given the Democrats new encouragement in their efforts to obtain control of the house. Representative Oldfield (Ark.), chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, asserted today.

The Democratic primaries, according to Mr. Oldfield, have furnished candidates of high caliber, while the effect of Republican primaries has been to bring out issues of which the Democrats can take advantage.

The Republican primaries, Mr. Oldfield contended, brought about "widespread dissension, revealed wholesale corruption, and demonstrated the unfitness of many of them to hold high office and the danger of a Republican controlled government to the welfare of the people."

"On the other hand," he continued, "the Democratic primaries were orderly and peaceful and free of any taint of corruption."

Contrast the difference between the position of the Democratic and Republican parties and then draw your own conclusions about who will win the elections. The Republican primaries left the good people of that party disgusted with his candidates and ashamed of the corruption the primaries revealed. The Democratic primaries left our members proud of our candidates and their records."

DAUGHERTY AND KING LINKED BY DEPOSIT SLIP

May Show Connection with German Deal.

New York, Sept. 16.—[Special].—The late John T. King sent two checks of $2,000 each in 1922 to Harry M. Daugherty, then attorney general, as contributions to the Republican campaign deficit in Ohio, it was revealed today at the trial in federal court in which Mr. Daugherty and Col. Miller are charged with fraudulent conspiracy.

Further interest attached to the testimony of John D. Durkin, formerly Mr. King's private secretary, who said that on April 28, 1922, he deposited Liberty loan bond coupons amounting to $2,125 in Mr. King's bank account in the Guaranty Trust company. Mr. Durkin identified a photostatic copy of the deposit slip. Durkin's admission had special significance. Daugherty and Miller are charged with conspiracy in permitting the transfer in 1921 of $7,000,000 representing war seized assets of the American Metal company to the original German owners. The indictment further alleges that both men shared in the proceeds of $391,000 in Liberty loan bonds which Mr. King received as a "commission" from the Germans for helping to put through the transfer.

Reveals Buckner's Early Threat. The government did not explain its purpose in placing the $2,125 deposit in evidence, it remaining for subsequent developments to show the connection, if any, between the $2,125 item and an item of similar amount to which United States Attorney Buckner referred in his opening address at the trial.

Mr. Buckner said at that time the government would show that Mr. King, after receiving the $391,000 in bonds, had deposited a check of $100,000 in the Guaranty Trust company; that it would show that Mr. King collected $2,125 in coupons on this block of the bonds, and that "his account was credited $2,125, and the very next day it was charged $2,125, showing he had drawn against it."

"And then," Mr. Buckner promised, "we will go out to the Midland National bank in Washington Court House, Ohio, and show you that Harry Daugherty's account in that bank is today credited with $2,125, the interest on the bonds collected by John T. King personally. We do not know where the check is. In Washington Court House the deposit slip is 'Harry Daugherty, $2,125 by New York check.' In the clearance coming back through the reserve bank is a proper memorandum New York check by the Guaranty Trust company, which comes even closer."

Secretary's Testimony.

The testimony of Durkin follows: "Do you recall," asked Mr. Buckner, "whether or not, in April, 1922, you deposited in the Guaranty Trust company to Mr. King's account, Liberty loan coupons aggregating $2,125?"

"It is very possible," answered Mr. Durkin.

Q—Do you remember how many coupons there were? A—Well, from the amount of the bonds I would imagine ten coupons for $212.50 each. You see that would make $2,125.

Q—$212.50 for each bond? A—$212.50 for each bond. That would be the usual amount of the coupons from the bond.

Q—The denominations then would be what? A—That would be $10,000. Q—For each bond? A—Yes, sir.

Q—A total of how much? A—That would be a total of $100,000. The government also showed through Mr. Durkin that King had also cashed Liberty loan coupons for $4,142.75 for the late Jess Smith, confidential friend of Daugherty, and that he had also made out a check for $25,000 in Smith's favor. This latter $25,000 check, however, was held inadmissible as evidence by Judge Mack, but Durkin was allowed to explain that it was not until 1924 that he had found out that the $25,000 check "was for Jess Smith."

Durkin also testified that King had sent a check for $5,000 to Daugherty in 1920, which in answer to a question by the foreman of the jury (Alfred M. Well) he explained had also been sent for the benefit of the Republican party. He said Mr. King had assured him he had "never sent anything to Mr. Daugherty that was not for the political party—not for the campaign necessarily."

ALDERMEN URGE LISMAN CHANGE TRACTION PLAN

Fear Lack of Adequate Extensions.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

One feature of the Lisman-Harlan surface transportation program for Chicago was considered yesterday by the special council subcommittee, before it asked the sponsors to present the rough draft of an ordinance. The questioning, led by Ald. Albert, was directed toward the amount of added transit facilities to be obtained under the Lisman-Harlan plan, which offers $50,000,000 for that purpose. The queries revealed that only $33,500,000 cash may be available for extensions, new equipment, etc. The aldermen made that appear so unfavorable to the car riders, the petitioners agreed to consider amending their proposal. "How much of this $50,000,000 will actually go into extensions and improvements?" Ald. Albert began. "John Maynard Harlan, attorney for the Lisman syndicate, explained that the city will determine how much shall be spent for rails, buses and the like."

"Would reduce $50,000,000." "Under your proposal, you will be permitted to sell $50,000,000 securities at 85 cents on the dollar, will you not?" Ald. Albert asked.

"That is the minimum price," agreed Mr. Harlan. "That would mean a 15 per cent reduction on the $50,000,000, or a cut of $7,500,000, leaving only $42,500,000, wouldn't it?" Ald. Albert continued. "That would be the minimum," Mr. Harlan agreed, adding that still would be about twice as much as Henry A. Blair had proposed to spend on the Surface Lines.

"In spending that $42,500,000 for improvements, your proposal specifies a 10 per cent construction profit, does it not?" Ald. Albert queried.

"Yes," Mr. Harlan replied. "That brings the $50,000,000 down to $38,250,000. Isn't that correct?" Ald. Albert inquired.

"Yes," replied T. V. Salt of Lisman

& Co., but Mr. Harlan said that was "not quite correct." Mr. Harlan argued that a construction profit was a legitimate charge.

Kelker Asks Question, Too. "The proposed $50,000,000 obligation fund comes out of the $50,000,000 also, does it not in your proposal?" Maj. R. M. Kelker, engineer for the committee, asked.

"Yes, from the $50,000,000," Mr. Harlan answered. "Taking the most unfavorable view," Ald. W. W. Mills commented, "there would be only $33,500,000 out of the $50,000,000 for actual improvements. But why waste time on details?"

"This is no detail," Ald. Albert protested. "It constitutes the real basis of the proposal. This plan proposes to cut off one mile every 10 miles, as a contractor's profit. The plan is to give the bond holders only five per cent, but give the sponsors of the plan 10 per cent."

"If all other features of the ordinance are agreed on you may be sure that this one will not wreck an agreement," commented Mr. Harlan.

"The one feature criticized most severely in the 1927 ordinance," interposed Corporation Counsel F. X. Busch, "is the provision which allows 10 per cent contractor's profit and 5 per cent as the cost of money. Personally I do not indorse the criticism of the 5 per cent, because money has cost the company more than that, but it is perfectly logical to pay 10 per cent contractor's profit, when the company does the work itself."

Offers to Change That Feature. "I want to be absolutely frank," said Mr. Harlan. "This item has not been discussed by us at length. It does not represent our final view."

Ald. Albert asked that the Lisman group agree to cut out the provision for 10 per cent contractor's profit. It was promised that would be given careful consideration.

Asked if the syndicate would agree to control of the lines by a city commission, Mr. Harlan then replied "yes." That would involve an amendment to the Illinois commerce commission law which put such utilities as well as railroads, lights and phones under state regulation.

"Under the 1927 ordinance, out of $50,000,000, there would be 5 and 10 per cent discounts, and we would have $42,750,000 in extensions and improvements," Chairman Byrne of the subcommittee commented, after the meeting. "In the face of our opinion that that cut is too much, these fellows propose to give us about $33,250,000 out of $50,000,000 for actual improvements, or about 66 miles less of extensions than would be given under terms like those of the 1927 ordinance."

FIRST WHITE WAY LIGHTS INSTALLED ON STATE STREET

The first post in the new State street lighting system went up yesterday while a group of merchants and city officials looked on.

Topping the pole are two 1,000 watt lamps designed to throw their brilliant rays up at well as on the sidewalks. The novel effect will be to illuminate the buildings as a canyon of light. Seventy 36 foot standards will line the street from Van Buren to Lake streets. The cost of the system will be $100,000, and it is said it will make State street the most brilliantly lighted thoroughfare in America.

Those at the inaugural yesterday were Mayor Dwyer, John H. Wood of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.; James Simpson of Marshall Field, Edwin Mandel of Mandel Bros., D. F. Kelly of the Fair, Barney Balaban of Balaban & Katz, and David Mayer of Maurice J. Rothschild. There will be a more elaborate ceremony on Oct. 9, when the system, which is being installed by the State Street Merchants' association, is completed.

Texas House Votes Inquiry on Ma's Administration

Austin, Tex., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Investigation of the administration of state departments under the regime of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson was ordered today by the lower house of the Texas legislature, which is in special session. The vote was 194 to 22.

BOMB EXPLODED ON S. SIDE. A black powder bomb was exploded early yesterday in the rear of a three story building at 37 West Twenty-second street. No one was injured and little damage was done.

to NIXON'S Westchester

America's First Model Suburb on Rapid Transportation

Westchester is truthfully called America's First Model Suburb. The reason for this is perfectly logical. The distinguished engineers and architects, who for over two years developed and completed the plan for Westchester, were unhampered by old buildings or streets of ancient design.

They had for their plastic fashioning a beautiful stretch of virgin prairie only 13 miles from downtown Chicago (closer in than Evanston or South Chicago) and bisected by two through routes running directly west from Lake Michigan—Roosevelt Road and Twenty-second Street. Like skillful sculptors, these expert planners molded their model suburb with beauty and utility as their tools. Hence zones for homes, zones for apartment buildings and zones for stores. Every building erected in Westchester must therefore harmonize with this carefully thought out basic plan.

Transportation—The great West Side with half the people of the third largest city in the world had never had an ideal suburban development. Like a great fan population had extended westward, following mainly the routes of the Elevated lines. Towns and villages, that had "just grown up like Topsy," were enveloped.

The men who have given Greater Chicago a Rapid Transit service that has won national recognition and who must anticipate Greater Chicago's annual increase of 150,000 people took action. They knew of this virgin area, then unnamed. From experience they realized that population always follows rapid transportation extensions. They bought their right-of-way and then built their high-speed electric railroad as a branch of the Garfield Park line. The rails are laid. The power is ready to turn on. The Terminal Station at Roosevelt Road is completed and ready for service, which begins on regular schedule Friday, October 1.

Improvements—With the early advent of "L" extension service George F. Nixon & Company found that every requirement of their responsibilities as "area developers" could be fulfilled. A sewerage system unmatched on the west fringe of Chicago has been designed and authorized. It is a "double" service, eliminating all hazard of flooded basements or back-up of waste. This improvement alone will cost $550,000. Coincident with scientific drainage outlets, an adequate system of pure water in abundant quantities has been provided. Electricity, gas and telephone service are now available.

Protection—George F. Nixon & Company are applying to all purchases of Westchester property during their three-year contract their Health and Accident protection and their Estate protection plans. If serious illness or injury should befall, your time payments are paid by us until you are well again. Should death come, your family will get an unencumbered deed to the lot and all payments are returned to your estate except the first down payment.

Opportunity—Whether you are interested in a home site, an apartment site or a business site, Westchester gives you an opportunity unmatched in the Chicago suburban area. Especially attractive are the advantages to one with the ambition to own his or her own store or shop.

The minute high-speed transportation starts values go up. That is the history of Greater Chicago—remember Wilson Ave., Howard St., Niles Center and Ravenswood. And again we say, this is the first time the West side has had a suburban development backed by such ideal essentials.

In all frankness we suggest: Buy now before the Elevated trains start, and profit. Prices are yet attractively low. Values grow with "L" extensions.

BRITISH POLICE CHARGE WOMEN IN STRIKE RIOT

Wives of Miners Join in Attack on Workmen.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Sept. 16.—Rural police with heavy special reinforcements charged a mob of 2,000 strikers and their wives at Doncaster today in the first serious disturbance of the British coal strike for more than a month.
Trouble has been brewing between the rank and file of the miners and the safety men in several districts, the latter going back to work in defiance of the unions. When the safety men were leaving the Doncaster pits, a mob of strikers singing the "Red Flag" assembled near the entrances and jeered and menaced the former. Stones were hurled at the safety men. Police charged the rioters and eventually dispersed them.
Prime Minister Baldwin tonight summoned the miners' officials to a conference in Downing street tomorrow morning. He will consult also with the president of the mining association. It is understood that the cabinet hopes to get the men back to work while the details of a solution are being worked out.
In political circles the opinion is held that a scheme for district settlements, subject to national ratification, will be advanced. The idea is that the collieries should be made a wide ring in which the local miners' leaders would determine wages and working hours, in accordance with local capacities and general local conditions. The country expects Prime Minister Baldwin to take firm action, and he is being called on by all parties except the Tory reactionaries, who back the conservative mine owners.

MEIGHEN CABINET OUTMONTDAY; KING TO POWER AGAIN

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 16.—Following a meeting of the Conservative cabinet of Prime Minister Arthur Meighen, it was announced tonight that the Meighen government would resign on Monday and hand the reins of office to Mackenzie King, former Liberal prime minister, asking him to form a new government. It was also announced that the Ontario government will call a provincial election early in November and that government control of liquor sales will be the leading issue.

CHICAGO WOMAN ENDS LIFE BY LEAP OFF CLIFF

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 17.—(AP)—A woman's body with a bottle attached containing a note saying she was Mrs. Edith Hartley of Chicago was found in the ocean of La Jolla today. A deep wound was in the head and the woman had been dead about two hours.
She apparently had leaped off a cliff. Three hundred and forty dollars with a note asking cremation of her body. The woman was about 65 and expensively dressed.

CHICAGOAN, 76, FALLS 200 FEET INTO RIVER; LIVES

Ashland, Wis., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—James Wildman, 76, of the Wildman Boller works of Chicago, escaped serious injury today when he fell 200 feet from the top of a cliff at Copper Falls, near Mellen, into the river. His fall was broken about sixty feet down by a small tree. As he landed in the river, the icy water revived him and he was able to cling to the bank until help could reach him. His only injuries were cuts about the hands and head.

GIFTS from all the WORLD are gathered HERE!

It is not remarkable that, searching unceasingly for good gifts, we are able to present more of them. It is not remarkable that, since the search is made thru all of Europe and part of Asia as well as our own land, we are able to find more distinctive gifts. It is not remarkable that, with our envoys ranging the seven seas and the six continents, we are able to present more welcome gifts!

Ovington's qualifications for helping select gifts are obvious. The charm of the gifts is self-evident. But the prices are far more reasonable than you would imagine, were you to take the charm of the gifts as your guide to their cost!

For your convenience, tables bearing gifts are arranged by price. There are tables at $5, others at $7.50, $10, $12, $15, $20 and $25, and each table holds many unusual values.

ASK CONVICTION OF 26 UNDER THE ANTI-TRUST ACT

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—[Special.]—Reinstatement of the conviction of twenty-five persons who were indicted in the United States District court in Chicago for violation of anti-trust laws, is sought in a brief filed in the Supreme court of the United States by the department of justice. The defendants in the case are members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and several manufacturers of millwork or carpentry.

question of interstate commerce was involved. The government, in carrying out the case to the Supreme court is seeking to show that a restraint of interstate commerce was necessarily involved in an agreement against the products of open shops. The case has been pending for five years, the original indictments being returned in 1921.

Illegal Agreement Charged.
It was charged in the indictment that the trades unionists, manufacturers of millwork in Chicago, and the members of the Carpenters' association of Chicago entered into a three-party agreement to exclude competing millwork manufacturers outside Chicago.

Evidence presented at the trial before Federal Judge Cliffe and a jury in 1923 indicated that during 1918 the contractors in Chicago had agreed with the carpenters employed by them that no nonunion millwork be installed in Chicago. The government introduced evidence to show that nonunion millwork in fact came from other states than Illinois and that therefore the necessary effect of this agreement was to exclude material which had formerly made up a part of the interstate commerce flowing into Chicago. To link up the manufacturers in Chicago with the contractors' agreement as a means of proving that this exclusion was an illegal one, the government showed that the manufacturers paid a preferential discount to the contractors to induce them to consent to the demand of the unionists against non-union mill work. The Chicago manufacturers were unionized and had, as a result, been forced to charge higher prices than those charged by their competitors outside Illinois.

Convicted All Defendants.
After the trial, at which all the defendants were convicted, the contractors were dropped from the case by the government. The manufacturers and trades unionists contended that there had been no collusion between them, but that each had made their separate agreement with the contractors. The government answered that it has been shown that each group must have known what the other was doing and that each cooperated to attain the common illegal end. Both groups argued in reply that the end was not an illegal one.

ILLINOIS LABOR SOFT PEDALS ON LIQUOR QUESTION

BY THOMAS WREN.
Streator, Ill., Sept. 16.—[Special.]—This year's convention of the Illinois Federation of Labor will not take a definite stand on the prohibition question. Shortly before adjournment of the morning session delegates from a coal miners' local in Illinois attempted to introduce a resolution which advocated a repeal of the Volstead act. Sale of light wines and beer was urged as a replacement of the prohibition law. But each year since the enactment of the eighteenth amendment the state federation has voted wet. And in view of the federation's record on the subject the delegates voted almost unanimously to avoid the dry and wet issue at this year's meeting. It was said that had the state federation accepted the resolution of the mine workers it virtually would mean an endorsement of the stand taken by George Brennan, Democratic candidate for United States senator.

Hope to Avoid Clash.
It also would mean the opening of a conflict between the supporters of the three candidates for the senatorial position. And that is what the officers of the state federation are trying to avoid.

East St. Louis was selected as the convention city for 1927.

There was some talk of holding the state labor convention in Chicago in 1928, when the labor organization will be 50 years old.

For Postal Employees.
James Bruck, a labor editor and a member of the Chicago postal service, spoke at length on resolutions affecting the working conditions of the postal office clerks. Five communications were passed by the convention on this subject.

WIDOW SERVES HOME BREW AT MEALS; IS FINED

For a widow to serve home brew to her boarders with their meals is a violation warranting a fine of $20 and costs, Judge Frank T. Sullivan yesterday decided when Mrs. Ellen Warosoff, 45 years old, 1322 Oliver street, was brought before him on a disorderly conduct charge.

George Gaherel, 45, and Peter Slenek, 53, the two boarders, testified they had the brew with their meals, but that they had never known Mrs. Warosoff to sell any. Both men, arrested with their landlady, were discharged.

was Policeman Jerry Roturak of the Lawrence station who made the arrest. While chasing two thieves he got into Mrs. Warosoff's kitchen by mistake and spotted the home brew there. Whereupon the policeman promptly enforced the law as he saw the law.

338 YR. OLD NOTE CLEARS DRAKE IN ARMADA BATTLE

German Bares Spaniards
Capture by Sir Francis.

(Copyright, 1926: By the New York Times.)

LONDON, Sept. 16.—After nearly three and a half centuries evidence has just been turned up to clear a serious accusation brought against Sir Francis Drake in connection with the English fleet's battle against the Spanish armada.

On the night of July 21, 1588, when the British fleet under Lord Howard, of which Sir Francis was one of the principal leaders, was pursuing the defeated Spanish armada, Lord Howard's flagship, the Ark, was following Sir Francis' ship, the Revenge, steering through the darkness by means of a lantern displayed at the stern of the Revenge.

But at dawn Lord Howard found that the Revenge had disappeared and that the English flagship had been following a Spanish ship, thus exposing itself to being captured by the enemy.

Accused of Desertion.
Sir Francis was promptly accused of having deserted his post. He explained to Lord Howard that in the dim light before dawn he had seen several ships sailing abreast and that, it being his duty to ascertain whether they were Spanish, he had put out his lantern in order not to mislead Lord Howard, and turned out of his course to investigate.

The ships he had sighted, he then learned, were peaceable German trading vessels seeking safe convoy up the English channel. Sir Francis said he ordered them to join the English fleet, but while they were doing so he sighted a Spanish warship, Our Lady of the Rosary, the flagship of the Andalusian squadron of the Spanish armada, and forced it to surrender. Its captain was taken aboard the Revenge.

Lord Howard accepted Sir Francis Drake's version of the affair, but other English champions expressed their doubts, and one of them, Sir Martin Frobisher, openly maintained that Drake had deserted his post merely to get the Spanish loot.

Letter Clears Famed Captain.
But now, 338 years after the defeat of the Spanish armada, complete vindication for Sir Francis Drake has suddenly turned up. An English investigator has discovered in the "Fugger news letters," in Vienna, the second volume of which was recently published, a statement of the captain of a German vessel to the effect that on the night of July 21, 1588, he joined the English fleet. He then tells how Sir Francis captured the Spanish ship.

COOLIDGE PULLS STAKES AT CAMP TO END VACATION

Paul Smiths, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The summer White House, which has functioned as steadily as if it had been in Washington for the last nine weeks in the Adirondacks, within forty miles of the Canadian border, will disappear on Saturday morning, when the President and Mrs. Coolidge begin their daylight trip through to New York.

Today, in the midst of a storm which covered the top of St. Regis mountain and flooded the roadways, preparations were begun for the closing of White Pine Camp.

President Coolidge, like the usual head of the house, avoided the packing at White Pine camp and spent a good portion of the day at his executive offices. Even there he encountered the moving men, as the executive offices, except his private office, were dismantled and the desks and filing cases and rugs were packed for shipment to Washington.

Two armed men stopped a truck of the Army and Navy department, 828 North Crawford avenue, at Belmont and Narragansett avenues yesterday and stole $100 from the driver, Jacob Vodianer, 1850 South Millard avenue.

a telegram from the embassy that two bandits were killed by federal forces, but other bandits fled and beat Rosenthal to death. Bandits are being pursued. Secretary has directed ambassador to make urgent representations not only to see that bandits are arrested and punished, but Rosenthal's body is recovered.

This latest turn in the relations between the United States and Mexico is a source of great anxiety to the President, who had hoped that the Mexican government had reached a point of stability.

Widow Returning Home.
New York, Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Official confirmation of the death of Jacob Rosenthal of Woodmere, L. I., came from Washington today in the form of a telegram from Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg to Alfred D. Lind, the slain man's attorney.

Mrs. Rosenthal was on a train bound for Mexico when word of her husband's death reached New York. Mr. Lind immediately communicated with friends in St. Louis, who notified the widow as she stepped from her train there. She started back for New York at once, and is expected to be here tomorrow evening.

Mr. Lind addressed the following letter to Secretary Kellogg:

"I acknowledge the receipt of your telegram, advising of the death of Jacob Rosenthal.

"Better to Pay Ransom."
"From what I gather, not only from your telegram but from press dispatches, some agreement appears to have been reached to pay a ransom for Rosenthal's release and that, while pretense was made of paying the ransom, the Mexican troops surrounded the parties to the transaction and opened fire on the bandits, with the result that they, in desperation and revenge, killed their captive.

"Rosenthal's life was worth far more than any ransom which could have been demanded. I feel that if a bargain was made to pay ransom it should have been carried out; the captive rescued, and the bandits could have been pursued and captured."

Which would you rather be— Wicked and Fascinating or Dowdy and Good?

Like every other daughter of Eve—in your heart of hearts—you know the answer!

But must a good woman be dowdy?

As a wife and mother, must you pay such a ghastly price for a home? Must you sacrifice on the altar of domesticity all of your youth and beauty—all of your girlish grace and your feminine charm?

Not if you're wise—you won't!

Do you expect your husband to tell you that you're losing your looks, that your clothes are dowdy, that your home is sloppy, that your charm is slipping, that your mind is getting lazy and fat?

Oh, daughter of Eve, the sons of Adam are not made that way! He may tell it to some other woman—but never, oh, ten times never—to you!

For the sake of your children's future, a happy home and your husband's love—be wise while yet there is time.

Why did your husband marry you?

To raise a brood of noisy children? To be a combination of nurse-maid, furnace man, housekeeper and cook? To act as an unskilled home bookkeeper and wrestle frantically with budgets and bills? Was that what he talked to you about those moonlit evenings by the shore?

Yes, yes, we know that married life is—married life—that someone must wash Johnny's ears and hire the cook, and sometimes even shovel the furnace to keep the home fires burning. But a successful wife and mother must learn to do these things without going utterly to seed herself.

First of all you must care. You mustn't let yourself go. You must work with your brain as well as with your hands and feet. Many a good housewife who would be horrified at a speck of dust in her immaculate home has her brain all cluttered up with mental cobwebs.

Here's just the help you need

On a news-stand just around the corner there's the very help you need in a magazine that has declared war on dowdiness. It will tell you that this is the one unforgivable woman's sin—the greatest danger to happy homes—the straightest road to the divorce court.

The name of this magazine is Delineator. It believes that a woman's first duty is to keep her feminine charm. It knows that a woman can be a competent home maker, a successful wife and mother—and still keep her looks and mind and joy in life.

For the woman who wins!

Delineator is written and edited for the woman who refuses to be beaten by her job. It's like a window opening wide to the great world of life and joy. From fiction to fashions, from family to food—everything a woman wants and needs—it's all there—alert, modern, feminine—page after page of fascinating reading for the woman who's alive!

Don't envy the woman that you might be—but be her!

"Barberry Bush" by Kathleen Norris—This ever popular author knows young people. She knows married life. She believes in love. "Barberry Bush" is the sum total of this knowledge. Her husband calls it her most important serial.

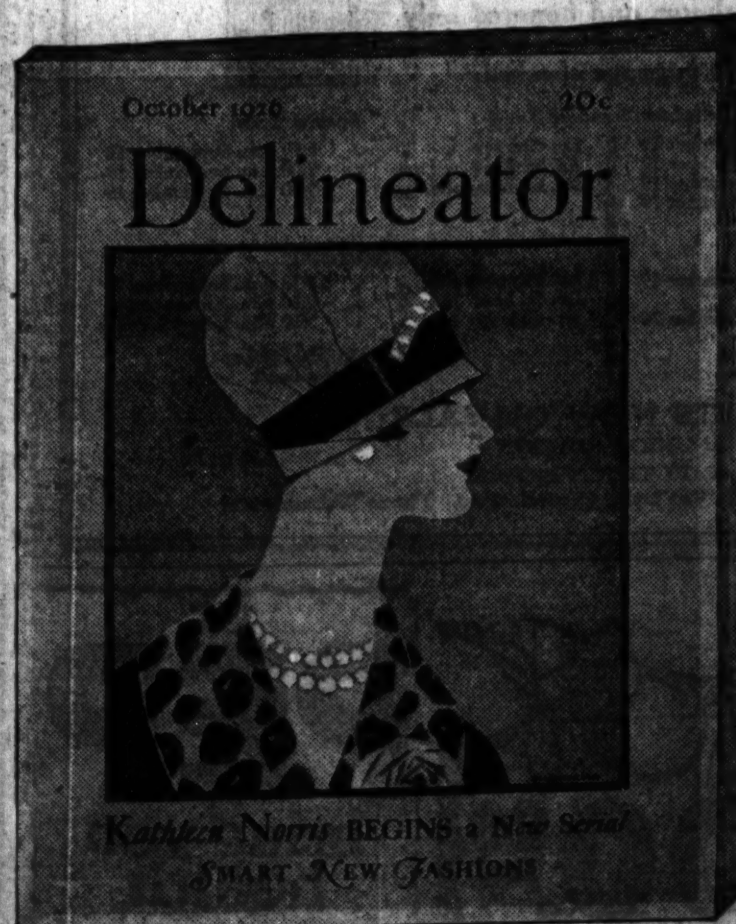

John Erskine "Explaining Helen" The inimitable author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" tells some rather intimate gossip about the fair lady that he censored from his first revelations.

Delineator Home Institute—Mildred Maddocks Bentley, the recognized authority on domestic science, tells about her very interesting plans for this important new service to Delineator readers.

Albert Payson Terhune—another wonderful dog story, "Pals in Danger"—telling how a collie and his young master fight each other's battles.

Beauty Operations—So many, many women have anxiously weighed this question and longed for an authoritative answer. Here it is—straight from the shoulder—given by Dr. Joseph Colt Bloodgood, Associate Professor of Clinical Surgery at Johns Hopkins University.

Zona Gale's "Riches"—The dramatic conclusion of this fascinating story of the woman who dared to take her trial-marriage husband at his word.

Cover Design by Helen Dryden

Good to Eat—and Easy to Make. A series of wonderfully appetizing, practical recipes culled from the favorites of Delineator readers and tested in the kitchens of Delineator Home Institute.

The Fall Bride Asks—"Am I Getting My Money's Worth In The Market Basket?" and "Is It Practical for Me to Cook by Electricity?" Delineator Home Institute helps the anxious bride to find a satisfactory answer.

A New Fashion Help—Something interestingly new in a pictorial method to help women more easily visualize materials as well as styles in the latest Paris fashions.

Fall and Winter Paris Styles—An up-to-the-minute report of how Paris will meet the formal demands of Autumn and Winter with frocks that are equal to every social occasion.

Fall Curtains—Mrs. Charles Bradley Sanders, editor of Delineator's Interior Decoration Department, makes some appealing suggestions for combining curtains with the newer fabrics.

114 Fascinating Pages—And so much more besides! Stories by Coningsby Dawson and Fannie Kilbourne; a startling article by Mrs. L. A. Miller, Chairman of the Literature Department of the general Federation of Women's Clubs; "Before the Baby Comes" by Dr. Joseph B. DeLee—114 fascinating pages—and not a dull one in the entire magazine from cover to cover.

FLAREBACK FROM DRY LAW FIGHT SPLITS CHURCHES

Staubenville, O., Sept. 16.—[Special.]—Staubenville, with its record of 26 murders in the last 12 months—only one of which was followed by an arrest and trial—is a city divided against itself.

The wholesale slayings are the outgrowth of frequent bootleg wars which time and again have held the city and county in a grip of terror. The situation finally culminated in the removal of two city officials from office. Prohibition is at the bottom of the whole affair, and intermingled in the question of church dictation of municipal government.

Mayor John H. Patton and Chief of Police Blaine D. Carter were the two officials ousted. A ministerial committee headed by W. R. Alban, attorney-reformer, brought about their dismissal and now holds the whip hand. The officials were charged with permitting more than two hundred liquor places and houses of ill fame to operate and with conniving with criminals.

Filing of charges against the mayor and chief of police was the signal for bitter warfare for control of the municipal government. Every minister in the city with one exception signed the petition for removal. The exception was the pastor of Unity Presbyterian church, of which Mayor Patton is a member.

Thirteen of the year's slayings resulted from clashes between enforcement officers and bootleggers. The death toll was six dry agents and seven bootleggers. Gov. Vic Donahey has sent a corps of picked dry agents and heavily armed private detectives for a bodyguard for Alban, whose life has been threatened.

Business Men Divided.

Business men are not united in support of the reform movement. Wholesale withdrawals from the churches are threatened, but the ministers continue the fight. The city's population of 30,000 is approximately 50 percent foreign born. Practically all of this element is wet. Business men opposing the ministers argue that to enforce the liquor laws would result in industrial calamity. Workmen in the steel mills and pottery plants would move on to other cities, where they could enjoy more freedom, they claim. Boose conditions are blamed on the industrial situation rather than politics.

Appeal Is Pending.

Charges were first filed three weeks ago. The court ordered the removal of the mayor and the police chief. Quo warranto proceedings were filed within a few hours and the same day the officials were reinstated. Charges were filed once more and again the officials were removed. Patton and Carter immediately appealed and their appeal is pending.

ROB 2 WIDOWS OF FURS, WATCH IN THEIR FLAT

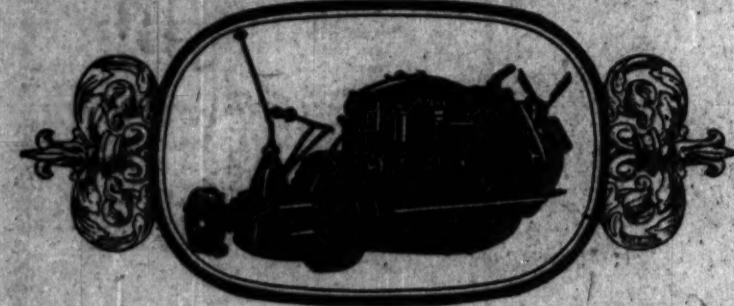

Two armed bandits yesterday robbed Mrs. Catherine Ellis, 46, and Mrs. Mary Nalthrop, 43, her sister-in-law, of their fur coats valued at $1,750, a watch valued at $150, and $125 in cash, after binding the two women with ropes and tossing them into a bedroom in Mrs. Ellis' apartment at 2761 Armitage avenue.

The two men rang the doorbell of the apartment while Mrs. Ellis was at a neighboring store. They asked for her by name. Mrs. Nalthrop told them to be seated until Mrs. Ellis returned. When she came back they drew revolvers. Both the women are widows.

Two Die, Two Wounded as Hunting Season Opens

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 16.—(AP.)—Opening of the small game hunting season in Minnesota today brought about the death of two men and the wounding of two others.

The Rev. M. L. Gundersen, 77, pastor of the German Lutheran church at Mora, Minn., was drowned in Little Rice lake when his boat overturned. Struck in the face by the full charge from a shotgun, while hunting, Peter Ewert, 19, of Kauoka, was killed near there. At Fergus Falls, Dr. T. S. Paulson, was sprayed with shot after an altercation with other hunters. Harold Tieden of Dodge Center, Minn., was brought to a hospital suffering with severe leg wounds, inflicted when a gun accidentally discharged.

LEAGUE HONOR WILSON IN COUNCIL SESSION

Nine Nations Elect Temporary Secretary

BY HENRY WALL

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—The nations assembly completed the election of nine new council members. The new fourteen members were elected to pay homage to Woodrow Wilson, founder of the league. It is the first time since Mr. Wilson's death that the league has elected a new member. The new member will be elected after Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's death.

The election greatly stuns France in the league, as it is a virtual ally of France. France's allies elect two little entente members, Poland and Czechoslovakia, and a new member, Belgium. All these states are France's allies. Germany's only ally in the league is Great Britain. Portugal, Spain, or France, Uruguay's demand for a seat, postponed the reading of the protest against the election.

The first ballot showed Poland, Chile, Salvador, Belgium, the Netherlands, and obtained the necessary more than twenty-five votes. Czechoslovakia, three and Persia, with two second ballot Czechoslovakia, obtained twenty-seven votes, disappeared completely, leaving second with eleven.

Poland, Belgium, Poland, Chile, and Russia, three year seats; Colombia, Greece, and China two year seats; Belgium, Salvador, and Chile one year positions. It is noted that Poland would be to its seat.

Only minor questions remained for the assembly.

LEAGUE HONORS WILSON IN NEW COUNCIL SESSION

Nine Nations Elected to Temporary Seats.

BY HENRY WALES.

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—The league of nations assembly completed the reorganization of the council today with the election of nine non-permanent council members. The new council has fourteen members.

The first act of the new council was to pay homage to Woodrow Wilson as founder of the league. It accepted the offer of a bust of the late President by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Caldwell of New York. The bust will be executed by Bryant Baker, American sculptor, and placed in the league's new building after Mrs. Woodrow Wilson has approved it.

The election greatly strengthened France in the league, as four of the powers chosen for the council seats are virtual allies of France.

France's Allies Elected.
Two little allies members, Roumania and Czechoslovakia, and one ally, Poland, won seats, as well as Belgium. All these states are on France's side. Holland appears to be Germany's only ally in the council. None of Great Britain's protégés, Portugal, Spain, or Greece, even came forward to demand a seat. The side-tracked when President Nimitz postponed the reading of the Uruguayan protest against the choice for Latin American members.

The first ballots showed Colombia, Poland, Chile, Salvador, Belgium, Roumania, the Netherlands, and China had obtained twenty-one votes and Poland had twenty-five votes. On the second ballot Czechoslovakia obtained twenty-one votes and Poland twenty-five votes. Finland came second with eleven.

Poland Reeligible.

Poland, Chile, and Roumania won three year seats; Colombia, the Netherlands, and China two year seats, and Belgium, Salvador, and Czechoslovakia one year positions. It was stipulated that Poland would be reeligible to its seat.

Only minor questions remain before the assembly.

BLAMES DOCK FOR DEATH.

Paul Kravner, 50, a railroad boiler car driver, died in his room at 25 Wackerly street, about three weeks ago, of acute pneumonia. A coroner's jury decided yesterday that the death was due to a fall from a dock.

JURY DEADLOCK OVER DONALDSON FATE AS KILLER

After eight hours' deliberation, a jury considering the case of William Donaldson, charged with the murder of Joseph Mullins, was deadlocked last night at Crown Point, Ind. It was reported that the jury members were agreed on a verdict of guilty, and that ten favored the death penalty, while the other two held out for a life term in prison.

Donaldson, former Texas cowboy, was said by the police to have admitted soon after his arrest that he shot Mullins while in the East Side park in Gary because of love for Mrs. Virginia Mullins, who had deceived her husband to that place. Mrs. Mullins at the trial turned state's evidence and told that story.

DELEGATES TO LEAGUE PUT BAN ON CHARLESTON

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—The delegates to the league of nations assembly at the Charleston as an undignified exhibition in their august presence and the younger, more agile guests at Foreign Minister Marko Nimitz's hall in the Hotel Berghof last night were told by the seniors to refrain from the ultra modern dances.

The orchestra was instructed to play lots of waltzes and tangos for the Latin American element. The rest of the program consisted of fox trots and one steps.

Several times the exuberant young attaches of various legations attempted to "Charleston" with their flapper partners, but were frowned down.

STATE QUIZ HITS RONGETTI AND HIS HOSPITAL TODAY

Thorough investigation of the Ashland Boulevard hospital and of its owner, Dr. Amante Rongetti, was ordered yesterday by S. L. Antonow, assistant director of the state department of registration and education, who acted upon complaints against the hospital management. The probe will start today.

At the same time Mr. Antonow built up a strong case against Joseph J. Rein on a charge of practicing medicine in Rongetti's hospital without a license. One of Rein's patients, Joseph Prestini, 5 years old, of Elmwood Park, died after an operation performed in the hospital.

Rein's Prescription Blanks. More than a hundred prescription blanks, upon which were printed the name "J. J. Rein, M. D., Physician and Surgeon," were seized in various drug stores by the state agents. They also reported to Mr. Antonow that Rein was listed as the chief of staff at the Ashland Boulevard hospital, despite the fact that he never passed the medical examination and has no state license to practice medicine. That Rein had claimed to be a physician, and also that his reputation in his home neighborhood of Elmwood Park was that of a heavy drinker, was told to Mr. Antonow by E. Castella, 1159 West Grand avenue, a druggist, who produced many prescriptions bearing Rein's signature. The sign above the door of his office carried the appellation "Physician and Surgeon," Castella testified.

Says Rongetti Operated.

Margaret Matthews, a nurse at the hospital who was present when the Prestini boy died on an operating table, was summoned to the department of records. At first she refused to answer any questions, insisting that she first wished to consult an attorney, but after much questioning by Mr. Antonow she finally stuck to a statement that it was Rongetti, not Rein, who operated on the boy.

John Prestini, father of the dead boy, however, said that when Rein emerged from the operating room with Rongetti the hands and apron of Rein were covered with blood, while Rongetti's were unsoiled.

Both Rein and Rongetti claim that the latter performed the operation, but Mr. Antonow declared the evidence indicated to the contrary.

Probe to Start Today.

The manner in which Rongetti obtained his state license to practice medicine also is to be investigated by the department, it having been stated that in February, 1915, Rongetti failed to pass the examination, and again in March, 1918, but that in a later month of that year he did obtain a license.

Chief Inspector John Follmer was instructed by Mr. Antonow to proceed today with a complete investigation of Rongetti and his hospital.

$1,000.00 IN CASH PRIZES!

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE will pay $1,000 in cash—for letters! Fifteen Prizes will be awarded for the best letters telling "What I Did With Tribune Want Ads."

Tell us about that real estate that was hard to sell—until you tried Tribune Want Ads. Tell us about the summer home that wouldn't move—until Tribune Want Ads moved it. Tell us how you sold your furniture, your radio, your pets or your auto—how you rented the vacant apartment or room—how you found help for your business or your home—how, through Tribune Want Ads, you found greater business opportunity and what it led to.

Here Are the Prizes—

1st Prize, $500    2nd Prize, $200    3rd Prize, $100
4 Prizes of $25 Each    10 Prizes of $10 Each

The best letters will be published with names, addresses, and sometimes photos of the prize winners. In addition, every letter published will be awarded five dollars. And this offer is open to everybody, everywhere, who has ever used a Tribune Want Ad and who writes in and tells about it.

Sit down now and write a short letter. We are after the facts of what Want Ads Chicago uses and how!

Winners will be announced in the daily and Sunday issues of The Tribune. Watch the paper closely, for yours may be a winner. But you can't win if don't send us a letter. Write it NOW!

MRS. O. NEUMAN

"I wanted to sell my Haynes touring car, so I called a Tribune Adtaker and had a Want Ad inserted in Sunday's Tribune. The car was sold Monday. I got the price I wanted—in cash! I certainly am glad I advertised in The Tribune."—Mrs. O. Neuman, 1545 N. Irving avenue.

Write your letter now. And watch the paper every day, for your letter may be one of the winners!

"The piano went to the first man who called Sunday morning. I had twelve answers to the ad and they kept coming until the following Thursday. We got the price we were asking and were surprised we sold it so easily."—Mrs. Frank Hajer (below), 3824 North Springfield Ave.

"From our two ads in last Friday's and Sunday's Tribune we received over 40 calls and rented three of the apartments. The Tribune brings me most of my tenants. I have tried all the other papers, but I use The Tribune now. Another thing about Tribune ads is that I get answers from people who not only can afford to rent in my building but also make desirable tenants."—Harvey J. Smith, 4821 W. Adams street.

CONDITIONS OF THE $1,000.00 CONTEST

Letters should not be longer than 500 words.

Submit as many letters as you want so long as they are actual Want Ad Experiences.

Anybody is eligible, no matter where you live, who has ever used a Tribune Want Ad. (You need not be a subscriber to The Tribune.)

Address all letters to 1112 Tribune Tower, Chicago.

"At first we weren't sure we could sell the planer with a Want Ad. The market for a tool like that—it was 16 feet long—is limited. However, we ran it one Sunday and received five calls. It wasn't sold. So we ran it again the following Sunday. We got six replies and sold the planer. There seems to be a market for EVERYTHING in The Tribune Want Ad columns."—J. H. Donberg of the Louis E. Emerman Co., 1761 Elston Avenue.

PUTS ALL STEEL PASSENGER CARS AT $506,734.

Van Doren Figure of All Wooden Cars

Ray N. Van Doren, vice-president of the Chicago and North Western railroad, was called as the expert yesterday by the coroner investigating the wreck of the western excursion train Lab which five persons were killed. There are 22,685 wooden cars in use on all the railroads in the country, Mr. Van Doren said. It would cost, he estimated, about $506,734,000 to junk and replace them with steel cars.

Uses Mostly Steel Cars
 "Fifty-four per cent of the operation by the Northwest road are steel," Mr. Van Doren said. "This percentage probably is higher than that of the Illinois Central, and also probably less than that of the Pennsylvania and New York Central roads."

Asked why the Northwest road does not use more steel, he said the average dividend paid by the common stock during the year, Mr. Van Doren said, was 4 1/2 per cent. Thirty-five per cent of railroad stock pays no dividend, while 4 per cent is the rate for all railroad stock.

Tells of Big Improvement
 Since 1904, he asserted, the Northwest road has spent $140,000,000 on roadbed improvement. Under the program, 121 wooden cars will be replaced each year. After deliberating for two days, the jurors declared they could not decide and adjourned at 1 o'clock.

PUTS ALL STEEL PASSENGER CARS AT $506,734,000

Van Doren Figures End of All Wooden Coaches.

Ray N. Van Doren, vice president of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, was called as the last witness yesterday by the coroner's jury investigating the wreck of the Northwestern excursion train Labor day in which five persons were killed.

There are 23,695 wooden passenger cars in use on all the railroads in the country, Mr. Van Doren testified. It would cost, he estimated, approximately $506,734,000 to junk them and replace them with steel cars.

Uses Mostly Steel Cars.
"Fifty-four per cent of the cars in operation by the Northwestern railroad are steel," Mr. Van Doren said. "This percentage probably is less than that of the Illinois Central railroad, due to its electrification program, and also probably less than that of the Pennsylvania and the New York Central roads."

Asked why the Northwestern could not sell 4 1/2 per cent stock payable over a period of fifteen years to raise the $23,000,000 necessary to replace all its wooden cars with steel, Mr. Van Doren declared that existing interstate commerce laws do not favor such selling of stock.

When the jury of prominent business and professional men inquired the average dividend paid by the road in common stock during the last ten years, Mr. Van Doren replied that the highest was 6 and the lowest 4 per cent. Thirty-five per cent of all dividend stock pays no dividends. The average for all railroad stock.

Tells of Big Improvements.
Since 1904, he asserted, the Chicago and Northwestern road has spent $10,000,000 on roadbed and equipment.

Under the program for 1926 15 wooden cars will be replaced with steel cars each year. After deliberating for two hours the jurors declared they could reach no decision and adjourned until this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Deny Desecration of Yank Soldiers' Graves in France
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
PARIS, Sept. 16.—The American graves registration service in France has notified Quai d'Orsay that no case of the desecration of American soldiers' graves which are in their care has come to their attention. This statement came as a result of inquiries by the foreign office, aroused by statements attributed to Senator Thaddeus H. Cusaway of Arkansas that the resting places of the Americans have been outraged. The American embassy at Paris has not reported such occurrences, Quai d'Orsay says.

LARGEST WORLD-WIDE BODY.
The International Institute of Agriculture, which represents 10 per cent of the territorial area of the world and 90 per cent of the world's population.

"I'M BEST ACTOR IN WORLD," COYLY ADMITS JOLSON

New York, Sept. 16.—[Special.]—Sharp contradictions of statements for the defense in the damage suit for alleged breach of contract brought by D. W. Griffith, Inc., against Al Jolson, characterized the testimony of Anthony Paul Kelly, scenario writer, who took the witness stand for the plaintiff today, in the United States District court before Judge William L. Grubb. Kelly was sure that Griffith had not pursued the comedian with hat in hand and contract in another. He was equally certain Jolson was not a blushing violet in the movie game, fearful that he would not make good. On the contrary, Kelly said, Jolson told him he was the greatest actor in the world, and wanted Griffith to star him, while Griffith coyly remarked that he never starred anybody, and that Jolson would have to prove "very, very good" before the house of Griffith would put him in the spotlight.

Sanitary District to Open $1,000,000 Bridge Sept. 30
Following the announcement by Edward J. Kelly, chief engineer for the sanitary district, that the California avenue bridge over the canal would be completed this month, the sanitary district trustees met Sept. 16 as the date for official celebration. The bridge cost $1,000,000.

LOST SAFE IN GARAGE.

O. Rueter & Co.'s Western Avenue Subdivision

Come Early—first come—first served
The Sale will be held rain or shine

Ideal Location

Western Avenue Subdivision adjoins the beautiful 1,060 acre Sauk Trail Forest Preserve on the east and south. Here is a permanent playground for your children—and an ideal community in which to live and raise your family. Think, too, of the potential value which this large Forest Preserve tract creates for the adjacent property. Then there is a mile of Western Avenue business frontage—offered at the rock bottom prices above. This is an opportunity only the wealthy can afford to pass by.

Country Club District

Western Avenue Subdivision is located in the great country club district of the south side, with Olympia Fields and Flossmoor just to the north and many other newer clubs to the south, east and west. The value of property in such a district naturally is enhanced by the presence of these noted clubs, and in addition they are a great convenience to those living in the neighborhood who enjoy the social and outdoor activities of country clubs.

How to Get There

Drive east or west to Western Avenue, thence south to Homewood, turn right immediately at the I. C. viaduct at Homewood then straight south on Western Avenue to the property. Or, if you wish, ride out on the Illinois Central Electrified Trains. Get off at Matteson, where our busses meet all trains and will take you to the property. At the prices of these lots we cannot furnish free transportation, but you can well afford to pay your own way many times over—even to the extent of hiring a taxi if necessary.

Beverly Hills May Repeat Itself

Everyone is familiar with the phenomenal growth and development of Beverly Hills, a territory which was pioneered by O. Rueter & Company. The growth and development of this new Western Avenue Subdivision will be as great and rapid, in the opinion of many. The rise in values at Beverly Hills has been no greater than is possible in Western Avenue Subdivision, for the prices have been marked down to the very bottom.

Bring Your Lunch

and Picnic in the
Sauk Trail Forest Preserve

Make a big outdoor day of it—bring your family and your friends and picnic in the woods of the magnificent Forest Preserve which adjoins the property. Buy a few lots and it will prove to be one of the most profitable as well as one of the most enjoyable days of your life.

Attention: Mr. F. W. Williams

Gentlemen:

We are handing you herewith our order for 200 Northern Oil Burners to be installed in the houses we are building in our "Spotless Town" developments.

These are decidedly high grade houses, even though moderately priced, and designed to appeal to people of taste and discrimination, who want nice things and all the best conveniences. Therefore the right oil burners are particularly important.

The burner for this purpose must be entirely automatic, completely quiet, economical of oil, dependable, trouble free, clean and capable of giving as much or as little heat as the weather requires.

In the Northern, we found all these qualities better developed than in any other suitable burner investigated, and in addition found it priced decidedly lower than any other completely automatic burner. Our investigations further disclosed the fact, from the view point of safety that the Northern was listed as standard by the Underwriters Laboratories.

Purchasing these Northern enabled us to place on the Chicago market a "Spotless Town" development where coal with its dust, smoke, dirt, ashes and unpleasant labor will be unknown, a clean, healthful, desirable place to live.

Yours very truly,

ARTHUR F. WILLOUGHBY INC.

WHITE SOX TRIM BOSTON, 6 TO 4; GO TO 5TH PLACE

Ted Blankenship Stops
Fading Red Hose.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.
These White Sox players have their eyes on a bit of the spoils of war. By street closing their eyesight to the straining point they get visions of the possibility of finishing fourth in the pennant race and fourth place will bring a lot of the world's series pelf their way. Consequently they were on their toes yesterday and today the Boston Red Sox again, this time by 6 to 4.

The Red Sox were indifferent in their play. They couldn't see anything coming their way if they viewed the pennant race from the Yankee observatory. But by their shorts yesterday, the Sox passed the Detroit Tigers, who dropped a double header to Washington. The southsiders now are in fifth place, something like one ten-thousandth of a point ahead of Detroit. They are three and half combats behind the Senators, who are nestled in fourth position.

Ted Near Old Form.
The fact that Ted Blankenship returned to the mound and turned in a victory also gave the Sox renewed hope for a first division berth. It was Ted's first start since he broke his thumb about seven weeks ago and, while the big speed ball hurler wasn't up to his standard, he gave indications of being almost as effective as ever. Ten hits were made off Ted, but he kept them scattered and never was in any great danger after his mates gave him a three run margin in the opening inning. Bryan Harries worked against Ted and was touched for only eight hits, but his wildness in the opening inning was his undoing.

Young Fido Purdy, the Sox recruit, singled greatly in getting the victory. He smashed a single in the first with the bases filled, driving in two runs. He drove in another in the sixth with a long fly, and he had a part in the making of another in the eighth, when he sacrificed.

Purdy Busy at Bat.
Three passes with hits by Home-land and Purdy produced the three runs in the first inning. In the third an error and a wild pitch followed Purdy's two batters and permitted him to count. Singler by Falk and Kamm, with Purdy's sacrifice fly, got one in the sixth, while Kamm's single, Purdy's sacrifice, and Berg's infield out, got one in the eighth.

A cue to Tobin, Jacobson's double, and Rosenthal's fly gave the Red Sox a lead in the fourth. Tobin tallied again in the sixth, when his single was followed by hits by Rosenthal and Regan. Singler by Harries and Moore, a passed ball, an infield out, and a single by Rigney gave the enemy two in the ninth.

MOON MULLINS—EXIT EMMY LAUGHINGLY

Cubs Helpless at Bat, So Lowly Braves Triumph, 4-1

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Boston, Mass., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Charley Root, whose usual complaint is that his mates get him no runs, was confronted with another difficulty this afternoon. The difficulty blossomed in the shape of four Brave tallies in the first inning. Thereafter Root performed with his customary skill, but it was a case of locking the stable after the mare was gone, so the Cubs suffered their fourth straight defeat. The dose was prescribed by 4 to 1.

The McCarthy boys, who until recently were figuring their mathematical possibilities of second or third place series money, now boast the doubtful distinction of having scored only two runs in their last twenty-seven innings, and one of the two was on an error. The only known remedy for this defect is heavy hitting.

All that the Cub attack netted in this affair was five hits. This modest assortment was collected off the delivery of young Bob Smith, who came to the big tent as an infielder and suddenly reformed. With support that was really surprising, considering the lowly state of the local employees, Smith didn't have enough troubles to keep himself warm in the clammy, codfish atmosphere. The one run against him happened in the sixth because Scott and Kelly paired two base blows, but at that stage one tally was of no concern to anybody.

Root's disastrous opening chapter was caused by nothing more than base hits in profusion. The first batter was retired and Ed Taylor walked. Welsh singled to right. High hit to the same spot and E. Taylor crossed the plate. Hoping to catch one of the other runners between the bases the Cubs started to throw the ball around, and they actually did a lot of pretty pegging, but the trouble was that they accomplished nothing. When the epidemic of throwing started Welsh had scored all the way from first base and High was on second.

Brown stepped up and boomed a long fly to the foot of the left field fence. The tap went for a three base hit and High went over the plate. Next came a healthy fly off Moore's bat and Brown counted after the catch. From this stage to the finish only three singles were made off Root, but the only good accomplished by this work was that the game was reeled off in a snappy one hour and sixteen minutes.

Osprey Proves Prize Angler

BY BOB BECKER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Forest County, Wis., Sept. 16.—Sting the water with resounding splashes and fishing with the skill of a champion an osprey or fishhawk today proved to be the champion "angler" of these parts. Following heavy rains, which have caused lakes and streams to rise above normal, fishing has been decidedly poor, with the result that only the sharpshooting ospreys who use powerful claws for fishing tackle, have been getting their "limit."

A pair of these interesting birds have nested for years along a wilderness creek in this region. This morning, when Law Garrett, Doc Ortiz and I ascended the stream in a duck boat and canoe, we saw the ospreys on their fall nest. I saw both masters whipping the water into foam as they tried to snag a fish. But all they were getting was exercise.

However, not far from these disappointed anglers, I saw one of the ospreys get fish and he was a spectacular fisherman.

The phenomenal upward swing of yearling cattle prices was halted at the $12.00 line yesterday, on par with the highest point since last January. Yearling steers at $11.75, however, established a new high, prime 1,453 lb average bringing this price. A load of steers averaging 897 lbs, reached $11.00. Bulk of good beef cattle brought $10.25@11.75, against $9.65@11.25 the previous Thursday. Butcher stock advanced 15¢ to $12.00, heavy hogs reaching $11.50, averaging 689 lb. Bulls steady to strong. Calves formed the trade in a 50c to $1.00 range. Range cattle sold steady. Light hogs reacted sharply, ending a two day break of $10.00@11.50, while heavy hogs scored further advances of 10¢, packing grades selling to the bid. Range cattle sold steady. The following information is taken from a letter dated September 15, 1926, from Mr. E. W. Beatty, K. C., Chairman and President of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company:

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company Twenty-Year 4 1/2% Collateral Trust Gold Bonds will be direct obligations of the Company, and in addition, will be specifically secured under a trust indenture by deposit with The National City Bank of New York, Trustee, of $25,000,000 Canadian Pacific Railway Company 4% Consolidated Debenture Stock.

The Consolidated Debenture Stock is authorized by Act of Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, passed in 1889, and subsequent Acts. By the terms of the Act, the Stock, subject to certain priorities and working expenses, is a first charge upon and over the whole of the undertaking, railways, works, rolling stock, plant, property, and effects of the Company (except land received by way of subsidy). The priorities, or underlying obligations, aggregate $38,641,724 and cover only 1,642 miles of railroad, while the lines embraced in the Canadian Pacific Railway traffic returns aggregate 14,165.5 miles.

Interest on the first charge, subject to the above priorities, upon the net earnings and special income of the Company, which in the year 1925 were $51,512,150. The requirements of the securities underlying the Consolidated Debenture Stock were $1,907,396 and the interest charges on the Debenture Stock were $10,569,795, which, together with rentals and other interest charges, made total fixed charges for the year 1925, of $14,438,517. Fixed charges were thus earned 3.57 times. For the ten and one-half year period ended December 31, 1925, earnings have averaged 4.18 times the fixed charge requirements.

This issue of Bonds has priority over $100,148,587 Preference Stock and $260,000,000 Common Stock, representing an equity at present market prices in excess of $510,000,000. Preference Stock has received dividends without interruption since its issuance in 1895, at the rate of 4% per annum. The Common Stock has received dividends continuously since 1882. Since 1911, the rate has been 10% per annum.

As of December 31, 1925, there was outstanding in the hands of the public $264,244,882 of Consolidated Debenture Stock, in addition to which $15,000,000 Stock is pledged under $12,000,000 Canadian Pacific Railway Company 5% Collateral Trust Gold Bonds, due April 15, 1934, and $25,000,000 will be pledged under the $20,000,000 4 1/2% Bonds now offered.

The purpose of the issue of the present $20,000,000 of Collateral Trust 4 1/2% Bonds is to pay for steamships which the Company has under construction, which will be placed in the Trans-Atlantic service, for the building of branch lines, and for other corporate purposes.

Application will be made to list these Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange. Price 96 1/2 and accrued interest, yielding 4.77%.

The bonds are redeemable as a whole or for sinking fund purposes upon 6 weeks' notice on the first of any month, or in part of any interest date, at 102 1/2% and including July 31, 1927, and thereafter at 101 1/2% and including July 31, 1928, and thereafter but prior to maturity at 100%; in cash plus accrued interest.

Declaration of a $5 liquidation dividend on the old stock of the National Bank of the Republic from excess assets not included in the merger with the National City Bank was for old stockholders of the National Bank of the Republic only, bank officials announced yesterday.

Books of hot rolled strip steel makers in the Pittsburgh district have been opened for fourth quarter shipments at unchanged quotations for wide and narrow material. Bookings are better than in August. Demand for cold rolled strip steel has improved, but prices are irregular. An order for more than 200 miles of eight inch steel pipe has been given to the National Tube company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel, by Prairie Pipe Line company.

Associated Gas and Electric company has revised its exchange offer, dated April 24, on Associated Gas and Electric company 6 per cent secured bonds. For each $1,000 there will be three $300 bonds and one-half share of Associated Gas and Electric company 7 1/2 dividend series preferred stock. Fractional shares of the preferred stock will be bought and sold at the rate of $100 per share. Adjustments of interest and dividends will be made in cash.

Ray County Gas company has reduced crude oil 40¢ per barrel in the west Texas district. Crane and Upton counties, Standard Oil Company of Louisiana has reduced the price of Baltimore crude oil 10¢ to a barrel to $1.40.

Lamb Prices Decline. After a steady opening on shipping lamb, market broke mostly 25¢ to 50¢, with sorting the heaviest in several weeks. Fancy 78 lb. Utah range lambs topped at $16.50, with bulk of packers around $14.40. Better grades of natives cleared at $13.50@13.75, a few to packers bringing $14.00@14.25 and one lot of ewe and wether lambs on shipping account at $14.50. Most ewes $11.00@11.50, and weighty buck lambs $11.50@12.00. Aged sheep were steady, handy range ewes up to $7.25. Full mouth breeders, $4.00@10.00. Feeding lambs were weak, bulk of 80¢ to 90¢, against 4.18¢, a few fancy Oregon buck faced lambs at $14.50 being no criterion.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 4,000 cattle, 15,000 hogs, and 30,000 sheep, against 4,138 cattle, 14,138 hogs, and 10,142 sheep, the corresponding Friday a year ago.

RIALTO LEASE
CALLS FOR TOTAL
OF $11,805,000

BY AL CHASE.

Irving Winter yesterday secured the northeast corner of Randolph and Dearborn, just west of the new Masonic Temple building, for $11,805,000 for which a total rental of $1,805,000 will be paid. He leased the property from Edward Landberg and William J. Brown who have owned the property, known as the Delaware building, for the last nineteen years. The three lower floors and basement have been extensively remodeled.

The property fronts sixty feet on Randolph and 7 1/2 feet on Dearborn. It is improved with an old eight story store and office building.

Mr. Winter will pay a rental of $50,000 annually for the first five years; $65,000 for the next five, and $80,000 annually for the balance of the term. He has an option to buy the property within three years.

The lessee states that he will make no change for the present, having secured the property as an investment. Alfred L. Miltenberg, of Alfred L. Miltenberg & Co., represented Mr. Winter and will have the management of building. J. Louis Warfield, of Warfield & Cousin, represented the lessors and S. Charles Iversen & Co., brought all parties together.

Ringer, Whitman & Kinch and Winston, Strawn & Shaw were attorneys.

The twelve flat building at the southeast corner of Dearborn and 61st street, lot 102x23, was sold by James J. Burns to Philip Elwood Shogren for an undisclosed consideration, subject to an incumbrance of $8,000.

William J. Burns has bought the northeast corner of Green and 61st street, lot 102x15, from Miss Bertha Letronk at a reported $45,000, subject to $34,000. The property is improved with an eight flat building. Samuel Burns represented both parties.

CANADA'S WHEAT
HARVEST AGAIN
STRUCK BY FROST

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 16.—Northern Alberta, which has had a covering of from six inches to a foot of snow since Tuesday, was visited by a heavy frost last night and the outlook for any harvesting this week is dim.

Operations which were resumed Monday after a long delay on account of rain are again paralyzed and much uncut grain is badly damaged by the early snow and will be difficult and expensive to cut.

Calgary, in central Alberta, and Lethbridge, in southern Alberta, report much snow.

Weather in western Canada is altogether unfavorable. Damage in wheat fields is widespread. Both yield and grade have gone down. Snow and cloudy weather prevailed in all central, southern and western Alberta. Despite the weather, farmers marketed 3,500,000 bushel of grain Wednesday at country elevators.

PRODUCE MARKETS

Demand for butter was fairly active and prices on top scores in the leading markets advanced 1¢. Cheese firm, with dealers not inclined to press sales.

Fresh eggs advanced 1¢ with a good demand. Receipts, 7,813 cases. Live spring chickens 16¢ lower and other poultry unchanged. Receipts, 33 cars and 3,770 cases.

Demand for potatoes was fair, with sales mainly at former prices. Wisconsin brought $2.40@2.50 per 100 lb. Receipts, 103 cars with 238 cars on bean track.

Sales of butter for future delivery on the Chicago Mercantile exchange aggregated 37 cars and 110 cases. Prices follow:

RAILROAD NOTES

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad announced the following promotion and appointments: E. W. Lee, vice president in charge of operation, is appointed to the newly created position of vice president. In his new work Mr. Lee will assist the president in the discharge of his duties. Mr. W. C. Clement, assistant vice president in charge of operation, succeeds Mr. Lee as vice president in charge of operation. Mr. Lee announced the creation of the new position of assistant vice president in charge of personnel, and the promotion of H. V. Mearns, now general manager of the eastern region, to fill the new position. To fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Mearns' promotion, Western Pennsylvania's division was promoted.

Net profit for the fiscal year was $1,150,123, compared with $1,133,844 in the previous year. The value of completed ships on hand, however, was reduced from $200,000 to $200,000. This and other charge-off items totaled $259,970 and were offset by only $242,682 additions to surplus. After payment of dividends, total surplus was reduced $16,044 to $5,371,157.

The principal changes in the balance sheet follow: Plant, etc., $4,965,384, decrease $234,264; current assets, $5,634,044, increase $752,487; total assets, $10,600,428, decrease $161,811; current liabilities, $18,115, decrease $37,061; reserves, $2,242,341, increase $29,754.

Here Are Scientific Reasons for the Daily Shower or Tub

There are millions of sweat glands in the skin. The amount of perspiration given off by these glands during each twenty-four hours varies from forty to sixty ounces. Perspiration is composed of various salts, acids, and water, varying slightly in composition in different persons. The condition of the individual, the temperature of the air, and also the season of the year greatly influence the amount of perspiration.

There are two kinds of perspiration, visible and invisible. The visible is that which does not evaporate from the skin but forms beads on the surface of the skin, while the invisible perspiration is that which is being thrown off constantly from the surface of the body in an invisible vapor of which we are unconscious.

The function of perspiration is to cool the skin and remove a certain amount of its waste products. Now, if we want to have a clean body, it is essential to keep the millions of small glands clean so that the blood, which is the source from which this perspiration arises, can free itself by means of these numerous sweat glands of the waste and poisonous matter which, if allowed to remain, causes all manner of ill.

Keep the pores of the skin open by bathing daily, then, not only for cleanliness sake but for health. The water should be tepid for the ordinary man or woman who is not in the habit of taking vigorous or even moderate daily exercise.

There are people who have the habit of getting straight out of bed into a cold bath before taking any exercise. But some form of physical exercise taken first is considered more beneficial so that a general warmth over the whole body is produced. This enables the system to avoid the shock to the body of coming into sudden contact with extremely cold water.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

MRS. L. C.: THE TEETH SHOULD be brushed thoroughly after each meal, and as the gums and sockets of the teeth need stimulating it is well to use a stiff brush, with a rotary motion. This strengthens their resistance and keeps the gum margins free from tartar.

JANE F.: DEEP BREATHING IMPROVES the circulation, develops the chest, reduces the abdomen, and is most effective in relieving headaches. Too much cannot be said in favor of it. When you walk, take a slow, steady breath until the chest is quite full, then exhale gradually. You'll soon find yourself doing it unconsciously.

Ducking the Wrong One

My sister and I were swimming and as I saw her swimming on her back I decided it would be a good time to duck her. So I approached her and down she went, but alas, as she appeared on the surface with eyes shut and coughing, I discovered it was not my sister but a woman whose husband I swam near by and the look they gave might have frozen the pool, but I got by somehow and always make sure who I'm ducking now.

A Friend in Need

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Music Offer

"I have about fifty sheets of music that has been popular in the last three years, and will gladly send these to any one who will write for them."

Mrs. J. B. F.

If you like music, you may enjoy some of these old time favorites.

For a Boy's Club

"A group of boys having a club in conjunction with a small church are unable to buy band instruments and thought possibly one of the readers of THE TRIBUNE could put them in touch with some organization of individual who would donate instruments at a nominal cost."

"It would be greatly appreciated if this group is the only one of its kind in the community."

Mrs. J. B. F.

Perhaps some one has a band instrument they are no longer using. These boys would welcome a donation.

Player Piano Roll

"I have some player piano rolls. I would be glad to loan them if they will call for them."

Mrs. J. B. F.

Nightly—Before Bed

follow this simple rule in skin care

By NORMA TALMADGE

Copyright 1926 by F. G. Baum & Co.

For most beauty experts throughout the world urge it as the most effective way to gain natural skin clearness.

WHAT you do at night—just before bed—for your skin is an all-important step in gaining the natural skin clearness which all the world seeks today.

Leading skin experts urge the following rule. Urge that it be followed last thing every night, also every day. It has brought the reward of a naturally clear complexion to more women than any other method known.

Try it for one week. Note the improvement in the color and softness of your skin that follows regular cleansing with the gentle olive and palm lather of Palmolive, in this way:

THE RULE—MAKE IT YOURS STARTING TODAY

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away. Follow these rules day in and day out. Your skin will be soft and lovely—naturally colored and clear.

Do not use ordinary soap in treatment given above. The use of any green soap, or soap containing palm and olive oils, is the only safe plan. Do not use Palmolive.

Remember that before Palmolive came, women were told to use soap on your face. Soap was judged too harsh. Palmolive is a beauty soap made for the purpose only: to safeguard and cleanse the skin. It is the only soap that stands behind it. Millions of women prove its effectiveness every day.

BE SURE YOU GET THE REAL PALMOLIVE

It costs but little the extra little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their skin. Obtain Palmolive today. Write to Palmolive Company (Dept. C), Chicago, Illinois. (Advertisement)

Mary Louise Gent Becomes Bride of John Martey Scott

The first Presbyterian church in Evanston was the scene last evening of the wedding of Miss Mary Louise Gent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gent of 1633 Elmwood avenue, Evanston, to John Martey Scott, son of President Walter Dill Scott of Northwestern University, and Mrs. Scott.

The service was read at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. David Hugh Jones, and a reception followed at the Evanston Country club. The decorations of the church, in soft autumn tones of purple and russet, were reflected in the gowns of the bridesmaids, who carried sheaves of autumn flowers. They were Miss Sarah Lowe, maid of honor; Mrs. O. L. Brackett of Los Angeles, matron of honor; Miss Marion Bessing, Miss Betty Irwin, Miss Ruth Bracken, Miss Harriet MacChesney, and Miss Sara Miller of Peoria.

The bride's gown was a colonial model of ivory satin, embroidered in silver and pearl, and her veil of tulle fell from point lace, fell to the hem of her gown. She carried white sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Sumner Scott attended his brother as best man, and the groomsmen were Dennis Gent, brother of the bride; Clyde Jones, Philip Henry, William Stahl, Joseph Falconer, Frank Huffman, and Townsend Cleveland.

After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Scott will have an apartment in Evanston.

Miss Pauline Francoeur, who is to be married on Oct. 1 to George H. Little, is being kept busy by a round of pre-nuptial affairs. Wednesday Miss Theodora Payzler gave a shower for her tonight. Mrs. Frederick Babcock will give another, and Friday, Sept. 24, Mrs. Charles Merriam will give a party. There will be a bridesmaid luncheon at the Francoeur home on Saturday, Sept. 25, and the following Thursday the wedding rehearsal will precede the bridal dinner given by Miss Francoeur's parents. The wedding will take place at Christ church in Winnetka, the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard reading the service, and will be followed by a reception at the Skokie Country club in Glenview. Miss Elizabeth Francoeur will be her sister's maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Langdon Phillips and Mrs. Babcock of Evanston, Miss Payzler of Chicago, and Mrs. Merriam of Chicago.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Fannie Bogardus Hunt of the Chicago Beach hotel to Longley Taylor, which took place last month. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will be at home after Oct. 1 at 189 East Delaware place.

Mrs. Charles Morgan-Faustel announces the marriage of her daughter, Edna E. Johnson, to Edgar Ray Broadman of New York.

Miss Veronica McCourt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McCourt of 6429 Ellis avenue, was married on Tuesday to John M. Cox of Chicago. The wedding took place at Holy Cross church and was followed by a breakfast at the Windermere hotel.

Woman's Press Meeting.
There will be a meeting of the Illinois Women's Press association this evening at 7:45 o'clock at the Chicago Women's club. Mrs. Susan Debelles will speak and Miss Pauline Rosenberg will preside.

Keep Them Warm— and Comfy Too

FOR winter wear, children need underclothing of soft, knitted fabric that conforms to the body and absorbs perspiration, yet allows the skin to "breathe."

That is why for 35 years careful mothers have dressed their children in "E-Z" Waist Union Suits. They're made to fit children's bodies, with ample room for active play, and they're tailored and finished to stand hard wear and laundering.

The superior fabric and careful workmanship mean less mending. The real bone buttons stay on. The "trouble of open" garter holders do not rust or smash in the washer. And there is only one genuine inelastic cuff, to put on, take off, mend and launder.

"E-Z" Waist Union Suits are made in light or dark colors—long sleeve or short sleeve, single or knee length styles, in white or gray.

White weight (size label $1.00), dark weight (size label $1.25). Each suit is made to fit your child's actual measurements. Send them to the children's department of your favorite store.

Shell Fish.

The fish eating industry is not what it used to be, and no one can tell how much that fact has affected the fish catching industry. The iodine impulse is doing something to restore interest. Inlanders have cause for regret, as compared with the shore or near salt water people, when it comes to planning fish diets. But if the inlanders became more regular in their patronage of fish dealers they would surely be better served.

Just now the problem concerns the oyster in particular. As everybody knows, a human being in a high state of endurance can swallow the most virulent germ and survive, or not in the slightest degree affected, but others are not so fortunate. Oysters may contain bacteria of the intestinal type, and so become carriers of typhoid and of less serious intestinal disorders. Therefore it is folly for one subject to such discord to eat this shellfish, even though this is an R month. And it will continue to be folly until our states and government have done all possible for the sanitary protection of shellfish grounds. They have done a great deal already.

But not all contamination of the oyster comes from the oyster beds fed by sewage contaminated waters. When oysters are carelessly opened and handled they get contaminated. And in the past, but we hope not the present, there have been dealers who could not be trusted to treat an oyster in the shell honestly.

The revised edition of Sherman's "Food Products" has an interesting discussion of the oyster and other shellfish. It says: "Although still classified with fisheries, the oyster industry is rapidly becoming a sort of farming. Submerged lands suitable for oyster culture are either owned or rented from the state, and many people devote themselves exclusively to the care of oyster farms."

But oysters are not the only food that can be contaminated by what it feeds upon. I am convinced, but have not had an opportunity to prove it outside of my own experience, that chickens can be contaminated, as well as a number of other foods. Moral: Know all you can about what you eat, source, etc.

We flaked Post Toasties Double-Thick and made corn flakes Double-Crisp and Double-Good!

When we perfected the Double-Thick flaking process for Post Toasties we set a new standard for corn flakes. Thousands of new users were won instantly by the wonderful flavor and crispness that resulted.

We want you to try Post Toasties and know their Double-Goodness, their Double-Crispness. They come to your table, oven-fresh from the great toasting rooms at Battle Creek with three wrappings to guard their crispness and their natural corn flavor.

The Milk or Cream Test is a simple method by which you can judge corn flakes in your own home. Apply that test to Post Toasties, the Double-Thick corn flakes that stay crisp in milk or cream.

How to make the test:
To make the Milk or Cream Test, get some

Post Toasties at your grocer's. Open the red and yellow, wax-wrapped package and shower some of the golden, crisp flakes into a bowl. Then add milk or cream.

Now test critically for flavor and crispness. With the first spoonful you will experience a new cereal delight. As your teeth crunch those oven-crisp flakes you will marvel at the wonderful flavor. And you will find that even the last few flakes at the bottom of the bowl are still deliciously crisp.

Be sure you get genuine Post Toasties, Double-Thick corn flakes. Ask for them by name and look for the red and yellow, wax-wrapped package that wears the Post Toasties Products Seal. A free test package will gladly be sent on request.

Plain Words About Interfering in Your Child's Love Affair

by DORIS BLAKE

"Is a mother ever justified," writes L. C., "in taking steps to break her daughter's engagement?"

Well, L. C., I would certainly have to know some of the circumstances in the case before answering that inquiry. If the mother knows, or is convinced, that the girl's fiancé is not what he represents himself to be, that he will make her deeply unhappy—ruin her life, perhaps—then of course, she is justified. But let her have the wisdom of a serpent and the diplomatic tactics of a prime minister when she essays the task of weaning the girl away from an unworthy lover. Many a halfhearted romance, so fostered by the alms cast on her admirer's character by some well meaning, but clumsy member of her family. If the mother of whom L. C. is thinking has some important facts to back her up in her belief that the girl's life will be spoiled by the proposed marriage, she must put like a playwright to get the ideas across.

I must here venture the opinion that most family interference is prompted of noxiousness, jealousy, and selfishness, as opposed to the nobler motives the interfering ones usually describe. I have known managing mamma, with professional daughters, who put every stone possible in the way so that the money the talented girls were making would not go out of the family.

Elmer Favors Novelties for Radio Concerts

He Makes His Appeal as a Steady Listener.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

It is the radio's Indian summer, or something, anyhow, much doing that's worth a memory's storehouse, or writing notes for filing in this paper's files.

The writer tuned in early—8 o'clock, from 6 to 8 o'clock dinner concert—when were numerous instrumental solos, organ recitals, vocal and instrumental solos, hundreds of them. Most of them were serious works—the most serious among musical gems of the radio.

Just the writer, who has been an avid listener for years, most of the selections offered were familiar, thoroughly familiar.

This medley of discourses is indulged in for thought for the radio listener, and as a suggestion for orchestra leaders and individual soloists, point being, of course, that as the radio goes on there is greater and greater need for novelty.

Conductor Newman, whose voice regularly is heard in solo from WGBH, has been a half hour recital at that station, and in so doing greatly increased our estimation of him. His playing mostly new, the spirit of the music entered into in an admirable manner, voice pleasing and warm.

Mr. Malla, chief announcer of WLS, on the second time touched on an unusual ground when at 7:15 he gave an illustrated piano lecture on the top of ways of orchestra instruments with respect to their limitation on the radio. Not at all uninteresting.

WGBH's continuous broadcasts of the New York orchestra programs from 10 to 11 p.m. were the consistently best program in the air.

There was a half hour vocal recital from one of the prominent stations at 10:30 from which I expected much, but the worst time trying to keep on with it. I believe I ever heard.

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY (Chicago Daylight Saving Time.)

THE Yon Kipper services at the Medinah temple will be broadcast between 8 and 9 o'clock tonight on WGN. This Chicago station on the Drake Hotel. Yon Kipper, or Day of Atonement, is the holiest day in the Jewish calendar. The congregation of Temple Shalom, of which Dr. Abraham Hirschberg is rabbi, has engaged the Medinah temple for the services. The soloists will be under the direction of Joseph A. Schickel.

Paul Ash and his show will be on the air on WGN at 7:15 p.m. There will be several new dance numbers by the orchestra, presented in the syncopated style that is characteristic of them. The artists who will be heard include Maurice Marmelstein and Helene Heller. Microphones in the Oriental theater will relay all the music and songs of the performance to listeners. Paul will officiate as announcer.

BY JOHN CORNYN
(Chicago Tribune Press Service)
(Copyright, 1932, by The Chicago Tribune)
Mexico City, Sept. 17.—Ten members of the bandit gang stabbed to death Jacob Rosenthal, American captive. We night, were executed today in the village of Huixtla.
Three of the bandits had been in police headquarters here arrested by Joseph Ruff, son-in-law of murdered American. Mr. Ruff, an automobile with Mr. Rosenthal, proceeding from Cuernavaca, Mexico City, when the outlaw attacked them and kidnaped the man.
The last three, after they identified, were taken to a spot Cuernavaca road, near the scene of the murder, and hanged.
Thirteen Killed for Crime
Thus thirteen of the band who escaped the Long Island raid have paid for the crime with lives. Three were killed by police Wednesday night when they overtook the bandits and the three remaining outlaws killed their captive, whom they held for a $10,000 ransom, and one of the slain bandits, said to be the leader, was Gen. B. Huixtla, mayor of Huixtla, believed to have been the one who killed Mr. Rosenthal. The others are said to have been his henchmen. Huixtla was a member of the Zapata army in the revolution.
The body of Mr. Rosenthal brought here today and an American physician, on the request of the American embassy, made a post-mortem examination. The bullet wound in the body and the bullet wound in the head.
Shot After Stabbing
When the first report reached that Mr. Rosenthal had been through the head, it was believed he had been killed by a stray bullet in the fight between the soldiers and the bandits. The autopsy showed, however, that the shooting had been done after the capture, as there was no blood in the wound, which indicates the bullet shot at their dead victim.
Where is Gen. Alvarez Obregon is perplexing Mexican. Notwithstanding the statement that he is the most authoritative, the Obregon has returned to Cajon, the reporters waiting to receive his arrival. It also was said that he had come to Guaymas, but a spokesman saw him.
Reported in Honors
Gen. Obregon was reported with Gen. Francisco Madero, commander of the federal forces, between Guaymas and the city of the revolting Yaqui Indians. Madero has not mentioned the Obregon. One report is that Obregon is leading the forces of the Yaqui Indians, and another that Gen. Madero is in full charge. A telegram late Sunday from the Obregon said that Gen. Madero had not arrived at the country where Gen. Obregon's train was stopped Sunday.
FLAMES IN U. O. DENT AL COLLE ROUSE HOSPIT
Flames, which practically destroyed the University of Illinois dental college building, 1334 West Madison street, early this morning, caused confusion among patients in the County hospital and other buildings in the vicinity. The fire broke out on the third floor of the rear of the dental building and spread through the six stories.
The flames rose high above the roof and lighted up the neighborhood, for a time. A panic alarm in the hospital caused by persons, however, away from the patients. Hundreds of the windows of the various buildings in the vicinity were broken by the fire.
The burned structure is across the street from the County hospital. Other hospitals with which the fire are the Presbyterian, the Protestant and the Catholic. Patients in all these hospitals were evacuated.
Grand Assistant Fire Marshal John J. Ryan estimated the loss at $100,000. The burned building is one of the neighborhood and was built one of the first in the city after the great fire of 1871.
